I open my eyes
But do not see

The bats and birds and honey bees

The sea and trees
and sunny skies

The subtle sites and super stars

The earth below, behind, before

The heaven above, beyond, behold

The simple things around me here

All so near and all so dear

Escape my mind, escape my site

I open my eyes and do not see

JAN

I open my ears
But do not hear

The sounds of silence soft and sweet

The hands and bombs
and ban the bomb

The crashing glass and blaring brass

The cries and sighs
and solemn sermons

The legions of lectures
From lunchroom to lab

The simple things around me here
All so near and all so dear
Escape my mind, escape my hearing
I open my ears but do not hear

I Open My Soul
But Do Not Feel

I open my soul
But do not feel

The vibrations and sensations of a senseless society

The bullets and battles and bleeding brothers

The needs of out hapeless, helpless and hopeless

The warm embrace and tender touch

The hand and hair
and heavy heart

The simple things around me here
All so near and all so dear
Escape my mind, escape my thought

Academic Probation and Exclusion*

A student is placed on academic probation when academic achievement falls below certain minimum required by the College. The purpose of such probation is a warning and at the same time as encouragement to take unusual pains to improve the quality of his academic work. Students placed on academic probation are expected to drastically reduce their participation in all activities not associated with their studies and to make academic improvement their primary objective.

Students are academically excluded whenever their academic deficiencies are so far below minimum standards that they must, at least for a time, withdraw entirely to reconSIDER the appropriateness for themselves of a college career. Students
