Professional Image & Success at Work

Monday, November 17 from 1:30 PM - 4:30 PM
Valdosta State University— University Center Rose Room

Have you ever wanted to feel more confident at work and campus social gatherings? Do you find that your ideas just never seem to be heard? Attend our half day workshop and explore specific strategies that will assist you in presenting a confident, capable, professional image. Gain the respect and recognition that you desire from customers, peers, and bosses.

This interactive workshop includes:

- A confidential, personal assessment of your current image and interpersonal style
- How your image influences your performance and the way others respond to you
- Effective verbal and nonverbal communication techniques
- Business etiquette tips that will help you feel confident interacting with others
- Methods on how to add power to the spoken word

Instructor: Dr. Mary Willis

Dr. Willis is a professor of Adult and Career Education at Valdosta State University. She received her bachelor's in Business and Office Education from Florida A&M University, her master's in Business and Office Education from Oklahoma State University, and her Ph.D. in Comprehensive Vocational Education from Florida State University.
