

Section 803.13

Unemployment Insurance

Regular employees of the University are covered by the provisions of the Employment Security Act which guarantees continued income to employees who are separated from University employment through no fault of their own.