

SECTION 804.03

Confidential Information.

Employees of the University having access to confidential material should refrain from discussing such information with fellow employees or other individuals. Evidence of disclosure shall be considered grounds for termination.