

SECTION 804.08

Gratuities.

Employees of the University shall not accept gratuities, courtesies, or gifts in any form whatsoever from any person or persons, corporations, or associations that, directly or indirectly, may seek to use such gratuities for securing favorable comment or consideration on any commercial commodity, process, or undertaking. Should evidence of such become available, the employee might be subject to reprimand, suspension, or possibly discharge, depending on the merit of the case.

1. Vendor Disclosure Report.

Georgia Statute requires that any vendor doing business with the state who give a public employee a gift or gifts that exceed $250 (in the aggregate) in value complete a Vendor Disclosure Report. Details of the law are found in the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, Code Section 45-1-6.
