

SECTION 804.13

Internal Investigations.

Internal investigations may be of a routine nature, i.e., cash audits, inventory confirmations, etc., or may be initiated by the Department of Public Safety in response to a specific problem, i.e., theft of materials, cash shortages, etc. Employees in the area are expected to assist in such investigations, and failure to do so shall be considered an act of insubordination. Failure to cooperate fully shall be grounds for adverse personnel action, including possible termination of employment.
