

SECTION 807.01

General Security

The Director of University Police has the responsibility of maintaining an effective police force with the main objectives thereof being the protection of life and property, enforcement of laws, University regulations and maintaining order on the campus.