

SECTION 807.03

Fire Detection Service

In addition to providing general security for all buildings, the University Police Department is also charged with the responsibility of fire detection as required by the State fire regulations. Police officers are charged with the responsibility of investigating any indication of fire throughout the campus.