

SECTION 807.08

Possession of Firearms on State Property

Possession of firearms on State property is a violation of Georgia law, and employees are advised that such is prohibited. Violation of this law will be considered a severe breach of institutional policy and may lead to termination of employment.

The Department of the University Police Department should be advised when it is determined that an employee, student, visitor, etc. brings a weapon on State property.