VALDOSTA STATE UNIVERSITY (VSU) STUDY IN ENGLAND AND SCOTLAND JUNE 6 - JULY 4, 2009

Have you often wondering about where the American criminal justice system got its foundational ideals? Have you ever wondered what shaped American penitentiaries and police forces? Have you ever wondered what birthed the concepts of just desserts, due process, and letting the punishment fit the crime? Whether you have or have not wondered about these things, does exploring the answers to some of these questions sound interesting? If so, plan to join the VSU Criminal Justice Program as we return to England and Scotland to explore our criminal justice roots. Look for more information about the Criminal Justice England and Scotland Trip in the coming months. Start clearing your calendar and saving now!

Highlights:

- Spend three weeks in Europe
- Enjoy cross-cultural learning experiences
- Compare the U.S. justice system to England's and Scotland's justice systems
- Earn up to six credit hours.
