What can we do to improve the non-resident student access to higher education and scholarships?

- Identify strategies to promote the passage of pending state and federal legislation.
- National Immigration Law Center www.nilc.org
- Raise money and set up local scholarship funds.
- Look for local and private scholarship funds.
- Instill in students a dream and hope for the future.
- Guide students to set goals that stretch them.
- Inspire students to discover life purpose.
- Assist them to turn obstacles into character and strength.
- Teach the value of hard work through the college and scholarship process.
- Empower the students with the tools to successfully reach their dreams and pay for them.
- Teach and assist them with the process to apply to college and for all scholarships successfully.
- Assist students to organize in a portfolio the five basic documents needed to complete any college or scholarship application:
 1. Documented Community Service
 2. Resume
 3. Student Essay
 4. Recommendation Letters
 5. Official Transcripts

Financial Aid and Scholarships for ALL students with or without a Social Security Number

MEXICAN AMERICAN LEGAL DEFENSE AND EDUCATIONAL FUND

Quote from the website with a listing of nineteen (19) pages of scholarships for all students regardless of immigration status.

"We encourage all students to seek private scholarships for their educational expenses. Please keep in mind that in order to qualify for state and federal financial aid, students must be legal permanent residents or citizens. If a student is not yet a legal permanent resident, they should look to private scholarships to help with educational expenses. The majority of the scholarships on this list do not require a social security number, legal residency, or citizenship. As a general rule, if an application asks for your social security number and you do not have one yet, leave that space blank but fill out and turn in the application. Lying about your legal status or providing a false social security is a federal offense. Family savings and fundraising can also supplement educational costs."

HARVARD UNIVERSITY - accepts non-resident students with scholarship and financial aid

Harvard University, one of the best private universities in the United States (located in Massachusetts) policy about non-resident students is that they may apply to Harvard and they would be considered for institutional financial aid. Parents are not expected to contribute towards college expenses if combined family income is less than $60,000. If a student is accepted into Harvard, it is possible that the university would pay up to $41,200+ a year of their school-related expenses. The current annual cost of attending Harvard is $46,450+. Even if awarded the maximum amount of financial aid from Harvard, students are expected to contribute at least $5,250+ on their own through work, loans, etc. Nevertheless, $5,250 is a lot less than what out-of-state students pay at Florida public universities!

Harvard website: <http://www.harvard.edu/> Harvard prefers that high school seniors apply by Dec. 15th, but the official application deadline is Jan. 1. If an applicant has not yet taken the three required SAT II subject area tests- they can do that on January 27. Note that Harvard does require that students who take the ACT include the writing portion. The SAT I already includes the writing section, whereas the ACT makes it optional. The regular SAT deadline to apply for these tests is Dec. 20th. You can pick up an SAT registration booklet in your high school guidance office, if you do not have one already. If you decide to apply to Harvard, you need to take action IMMEDIATELY. Look over the application carefully to see what you need.

JACK KENT COOKE FOUNDATION

Undergraduate Transfer and Graduate School Scholarships

The Jack Kent Cooke Foundation awards seven grants totaling more than $1 million to fund programs supporting international study and language immersion for high-achieving, low-income high-school students across the United States. <http://www.jackkentcookefoundation.org/>

RONALD MCDONALD HOUSE CHARITIES (RMHC)/HACER SCHOLARSHIP

The RMHC/HACER Scholarship Program is a program of Ronald McDonald House Charities and its local chapters. Scholarship recipients are selected on the basis of academic achievement, financial need, and their personal qualities and strengths as attested in a personal statement and letters of recommendation. Students must have at least one parent of Hispanic origin, must demonstrate financial need, and must be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident. Most RMHC/HACER local programs award $1,000 scholarships to graduating high school seniors.

GOIZUETA SCHOLARSHIPS - Through the generosity of The Goizueta Foundation, scholarships are available for Hispanic/Latino students. The selection is based on high school grades, SAT/ACT scores, and financial need..

The goal of the Goizueta Foundation is to empower individuals and families through educational opportunities to improve the quality of their lives. The Goizueta Foundation Scholars Fund affords that opportunity to needy and deserving students of Hispanic/Latino origin. Do an Internet search and check individual colleges and universities for eligibility.
