

Ruth Renee Hannibal, Ph.D.CCC-SLP
Associate Professor
CV

EDUCATION

Ph.D.

Michigan State University, East Lansing, Michigan

Master of Arts, Speech-Language Pathology

South Carolina State University, Orangeburg, South Carolina

Bachelor of Arts, Speech-Language Pathology

South Carolina State University, Orangeburg, South Carolina

Courses for 2009-2010 School Year

Fall 2009

CSD 2999 Entry to the Education Profession
CSD 5080 Dysphagia and motor speech disorders
CSD 5120 Aphasia and other neurogenic disorders
CSD 5220 Special Topics in Communication Disorders
Supervisor of Student Teachers

Spring 2010

CSD 2999 Entry to the Education Profession
CSD 5120 Aphasia and other neurogenic disorders
CSD 3080 Introduction to neurology for Communication Disorders
CSD 4140 Cultural and Dialectical Issues

Courses for 2008-2009 School Year

Fall 2008

CSD 2999 Entry to the Education Profession
CSD 5080 Dysphagia and motor speech disorders
CSD 5120 Aphasia and other neurogenic disorders

Spring 2009

CSD 2999 Entry to the Education Profession
CSD 5120 Aphasia and other neurogenic disorders
CSD 3080 Introduction to neurology for Communication Disorders
CSD 4140 Cultural and Dialectical Issues

Courses for 2007-2008 School Year

Fall 2007

COMD 2999 Entry to the Education Profession
COMD 5080 Dysphagia and Motor Speech Disorders
COMD 5120 Aphasia and other Neurogenic Disorders
COMD 5210 Applied Practicum in Schools

Spring 2008

COMD 2999 Entry to the Education Profession

COMD 5120 Aphasia and other Neurogenic Disorders
COMD 3080 Introduction to Neurology for Communication Disorders
COMD 5210 Externship

Summer 2008

COMD 2999 Entry to the Education Profession
COMD 5080 Dysphagia and Motor Speech Disorders
COMD 5120 Aphasia and other Neurogenic Disorders

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

- American Speech-Language Hearing Association, 1981-Present
 - 2010-2012 Advisory Council Member –the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association’s Speech-Language-Hearing Pathology Advisory Council (SLPAC)
 - 2008-2009 ASHA Mentor with S.T.E.P. Mentoring Program
 - 2007-2008 ASHA Mentor with S.T.E.P. Mentoring Program
- Georgia Speech-Language Hearing Association, 2000-Present
 - Georgia Speech-Language Hearing Association Division-President of Speech Language Pathology 2008-2010
 - Georgia Speech-Language Hearing Association, Southwest Regional Representative, 2004-2006
 - Georgia Speech-Language Hearing Association Southwest Regional Representative, 2006-2008

University Service

- Faculty Affairs Committee- Chair 2008-2009
- Committee Member for Search for VP Business and Finance 2008-2009
- Committee to examine Faculty Salary Model 2008-2009
- Committee to establish University’s Policies on Policies 2008-2009
- Faculty Senator 2008-2010
- My Friend’s Place
 - Advisory Board Member
 - Guest Lecture at My Friend’s Place

College of Education Service

The Undergraduate and Initial Preparation Policy Committee 2008-present

Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders

Recruiting and Admissions Committee

C0-Advisor VSU National Student Speech Language Hearing Association

Community Service

Attended Southeast Georgia Area on Aging

Publications:

Hannibal, R.R. (In press). Oral peripheral kit to be featured in ASHA's Access SLP Health Care November ehealthcare publication.

Hannibal, R.R. (2008). What's new at the U? Communication Lines, Georgia Speech Language and Hearing Association

Hannibal, R.R. (2008). What's New at the U? Communication Lines Spring/Summer publication. 25(3) Georgia Speech Language Hearing Association

Hannibal, R.R. (2007). Treatment Tip featured in ASHA's Access SLP Health Care September/October 2007. ehealthcare publication

Hannibal, R.R. (2007). Treatment Tip featured in ASHA's Access SLP Health Care. May/June 2007 ehealthcare publication

Publications:

Hannibal, R.R. (2006). Educating medical staff on aspiration pneumonia prevention in patients with aphasia. Advance for Speech-Language Pathologists and Audiologists. 16(47)

Hannibal, R.R. (2006). Aspiration Prevention: Not just a speech thing. Communication Lines. 24(1). p.11.

Wieting, J.M., Snow, L.M., Garon, B.C., and Hannibal, R.R. (1999). Cricopharyngeal achalasia associated with dermatomyositis: A nonsurgical approach to treatment. Journal of Rheumatology Medical Rehabilitation 1999 10(1): 40-44.

Representative Lectures:

Dysphagia in the Elderly, Cognitive-Communicative Deficits Associated with Traumatic Brain Injury, Cognitive-Linguistic Deficits in Stroke Patients: Ingham Regional Medical Center, Lansing, Michigan (1997-1999)

Cognitive-Linguistic Intervention for the Neurologically Impaired Adult: Guest Lecturer, Michigan State University, Department of Audiology & Speech Sciences, East Lansing, Michigan (1995-1998)

Invited Presentations:

Intervention strategies for adults with neurogenic communicative disorders. South Carolina Speech-Language Hearing Association. Myrtle Beach, South Carolina (February 20, 2009).

Neuroanatomy for the speech-language pathologist. South Carolina Speech-Language Hearing Association. Hilton Head, South Carolina (February 8, 2007).

Co-authored presentation. Hannibal, R.R. & Budd, Christi. Remembering Dementia. South Carolina Speech-Language Hearing Convention. Hilton Head, South Carolina (February 9, 2007).

Working with the Elderly Dysphagic Patient: National Black Association for Speech-Language & Hearing Milwaukee, Wisconsin (April, 1996).

Introduction to Cognitive Rehabilitation: South Carolina Speech & Hearing Association, Hilton Head, South Carolina (February, 1994).

Professional Presentations:

Co-authored poster session: Hannibal, R.R. & Bowen, N. (2009). Juniors' knowledge of dysphagia. Georgia Speech-Language-Hearing Association. Duluth, Georgia.

Co-authored presentation: Budd, C. & Hannibal, R.R. (2006). Dementia- Cross relations with occupational therapy and speech language pathology: Increasing the outcome of therapy intervention: Atlanta, Georgia (October, 2006).

Dysphagia in the schools. Hannibal, R.R. Georgia Speech Language Hearing Association: Atlanta, Georgia (March, 2006). Hannibal, R.R. (2006).

Gerontology and Speech-Language Pathology, Hannibal, R.R. Georgia Speech-Language Hearing Association: Atlanta, Georgia (March, 2004).

Co-authored presentation: Establishing Time and Space Markers for Persons with Memory Deficits: A Narrative Intervention Model, Patterson, K., Swenson, N., & Hannibal, R. R.: Georgia Speech Language Hearing Association: Atlanta, Georgia (March, 2004).

Co-authored presentation: Using Music therapeutically in treating communication disorder, Hannibal, R.R. & Blankenship, J.: Georgia Speech Language Hearing Association: Atlanta, Georgia (March, 2003)

Co-authored presentation: Culture and ethnicity in dysphagia management, Hannibal, R.R. & Brown, R.: Georgia Speech Language Hearing Association: (March, 2003).

Co-authored presentation: The influence of culture/ethnicity in dysphagia management, Hannibal, R.R. & Brown, R.: American Speech-Language Hearing Association (November, 2002).

Co-authored presentation: Basics 101: What SLPs need to know concerning oral nutrition intervention for dysphagic patients, Hannibal, R.R. & Brown, R.: Georgia Speech-Language Hearing Association (March, 2002).

Co-authored presentation: Infusing crafts and games in language activities, Hannibal, R.R., Myers-Jennings, C. & Maxwell, M.: Early Childhood Education Workshop: Waycross, Georgia (February 2002).

Speech Pathology and Restorative Dining; Functional Maintenance Programs in Speech-Language Pathology; Family Education Post Traumatic Brain Injury; and Speech-Language Pathology group therapy in Long-Term Care: Georgia Speech Language Hearing Association, Savannah, Georgia (May, 2001).

Group Therapy in Long-Term Care: American Speech-Language Hearing Association, San Francisco, California (November 1999).

Speech-Language Pathology & Cognitive Rehabilitation: National Black Association for Speech Language & Hearing, Vienna, Virginia (April 1995).

Dysphagia in the Elderly, Medical Speech Pathology: South Carolina Speech & Hearing Association, Myrtle Beach, South Carolina (February 1995).

Students' Knowledge & Attitudes on Aging: American Speech-Language Hearing Association, New Orleans, Louisiana (November 1994).

Oral-Motor Functioning following Traumatic Brain Injury: Michigan State University, Department of Physical Medicine & Rehabilitation, East Lansing, Michigan (June 1992).

Reintegration of the Brain-Injured Child into the School and the Community, From Brain Injury to Employment: Michigan State University, Department of Physical Medicine & Rehabilitation, East Lansing, Michigan (February 1991).

Co-authored Presentation

The Status, Structure and Living Arrangements of Contemporary African-American Families. Lang, C. M. and Hannibal, R.R. (1990). Association of Social and Behavioral Scientists, Inc. Tallahassee, Florida (1990).

Speech and Language Intervention for Head Start Children: South Carolina State University, Orangeburg, South Carolina (October 1985)