

PSYCHOLOGY CLUB MINUTES

9-29-09

The progressive dinner has been moved from October 24th to November 7th!!

On October 13th, Crystal Goode, a career counselor, will be joining the Psychology Club to speak about about graduate school, jobs available with a graduate degree, and jobs available without a graduate degree. This is a great opportunity to learn about options for your future, so don't miss out!

Show your athletic skills playing volleyball this Friday, October 2nd, outside the Psychology classrooms at 2:00 PM. There will be snacks and refreshments available.

Thanksgiving lunch will be held on Tuesday, November 24th. Members of the Psychology Club will bring in their favorite Thanksgiving dish for a delicious feast!

Everyone should receive an e-mail regarding the memory walk and how to sign up for the event. If you do not receive an e-mail please reply and let the Psychology Club know.

WE HAVE REACHED A DECISION ON T-SHIRTS!!!

The Psychology Club has collaborated ideas for our T-shirt design. If you have any input or suggestions, please share your thoughts. The price of the T-shirts will be discussed at the next meeting.

The shirts are going to be Kelly green with white font.

The back of the shirts will say:

"You know you're a Psychology major when..."

- 1. SPSS is your best friend and worst enemy.
- 2. You have to sign a confidentiality statement to get into class.
- 3. You know Dr. Whately reads the APA Manual for fun.
- 4. You are asked, "Are you analyzing me?"
- 5. You are excited to hang out in Dr. Wiley's attic.
- 6. You know Dr. Talor's favorite question is, "Do you understand?"
- 7. You never have a problem parking.
- 8. Dr. Browne's Sniffy is better than yours.
- 9. "How does that make you feel?" becomes widely used in your vocabulary.
- 10. You laugh at Dr. Bauer's jokes even though you don't understand them.
- 11. You actually know where the Psychology building is.
- 12. When graduate school is not an option.
