

Psychology Club Minutes

Tuesday, October 28, 2008

11 students, 1 faculty

- John Murray may be able to join us next Thursday, October 6th. If he is able to make it he will discuss the Psy D program and the Masters of Experimental program for Georgia Southern. We will update you on his visit at the next meeting.
- The Bake Sale was a success! We made the best profit in the history of our bake sales. Thank you to everyone who was involved!!
- If you signed up for the progressive dinner, remember that we will meet at 4 pm on Saturday, November 1st. We will meet in the psychology building's parking lot. Call Jessica at 229-300-8533 if anything comes up.
- On the morning of November 1st we will participate in the memory walk. Registration starts at 9am at Valdosta Tech. If you would like to donate for this cause please do so online.
- Bowling will be on Saturday, November 15th in Douglass. We will meet around 2:30pm to leave in the VSU van.
- There will be no cook-off for the Water for Life campaign. However, the triathlon and concert is still on. Please let us know if you would like to participate.
- The Psychology Club and Psi Chi are going to team up this holiday season and collect donations for the Haven. A donations box will be placed in the building and toiletries will be collected.
- We had a visit from alumni Angela Boimski. She graduated as a psychology major four years ago and now trains dolphins at Theater by the Sea in Florida.
