

Psychology Club Meeting for March 2, 2006

Bake Sale

The bake sale is scheduled to occur March 6th-March 9th in the Biology/ Chemistry Building. The following people are signed up to work in the bake sale:

Monday, March 6

11:30 Cindy Bonner

12:30 T.J. Gay

Tuesday, March 7

11:30 Anna Jo Jones

12:30 Ashley Skinner

1:00 Enoch Walls

Wednesday, March 8

12:00-1:00 Ebony Gore & Jody Vickers

1:00 T.J. Gay

Thursday, March 9

11:30-12:30 Monique Harmon

12:30 Kendra Jackson & Amber Banks

If you would like to participate or have your name taken off of the bake sale list please contact a representative of the Psychology Club.

Chili cook-off

The chili cook-off was a success $55.33 is the profit from the cook-off. Dr. Browne won 1st and 2nd place in the cook-off. The makers of chili C & E tied for 3rd place. Dr. Browne also won hottest chili and Jodi Vickers won most unique. Thank you all for your participation!

Conference

Regional Southeastern Psychological Association Conference this year March 17-19, $20 to join the conference and $25 to join SEPA registration is $45. The conference will be held in Atlanta and transportation will be provided. As of now there are approximately 11 or 12 students going to the conference. Please contact Dr. Browne or Talor ASAP if you like to join in on the fun!!!

T-shirt

As of now the inkblot looks like it maybe the winner of the t-shirt contest. On the next meeting we will discuss the t-shirt color and design. Please come if you have an idea about the t-shirt.

New Officers

There will be a re-election for vice president next psychology club our current vice president has resigned. If you want to run for this position please come to the next meeting and be prepared to work for the psychology club not make the psychology club pull your part!

Thank you Georgia for the pizza it was very much so appreciated!!

Meeting minutes: 1 hour from 12:30-1:30.

Psychology Club Meeting for February 9, 2006

Progressive Dinner

This year's progressive dinner is scheduled for Saturday, March 25. Dr. Talor will be doing salad and rolls; Dr. Briihl will provide the entrée, Dr. Browne and his wife will be making dessert, and Dr. Wiley's home will be the last stop for games. Additions may be made to the progressive dinner if others decide to take part in the fun. Everyone will be meeting at the psychology building at 3:30; there is a one-hour rule for each house. Come with an appetite!

SEPA

Dr. Browne and Dr. Talor would like a list of the people who will be coming to the SEPA conference. This event will be March 17th –19th.

Haven

The Haven is looking for volunteers, if interested please contact Kelley Young the volunteer coordinator at (229) 244-6142. Training sessions are in two parts you must come to Session I on Saturday, February 18 from 12-3 or Thursday, February 16 and then Session II on Thursday, February 23 or Saturday, February 25. You may also ask Vikki any additional questions at the Psychology Club meetings.

GPS

For the Georgia Psychological Society Conference at VSU students are needed to present their past and present data. The topics mainly up for discussion at this event will be psychology teaching, early intervention, and aging issues. A mock GRE test will also take place this will last about 2 hrs long.

Events

The canoe trip will be in Live Oak to join is only $15.

Paintball will be sometime soon.

The bake sale will be sometime during March 6th- March 10th.

Softball will be in April additional information will come once approval is given by the coaches.

The meeting lasted from 12:30 until 12:54: a total of 24 minutes.

Psychology Club Meeting for February 2, 2006

Topics of Discussion

Chili Cook-off

Fliers are ready and participants are wanted. Contact one of the psychology club advisors or officers if you would like to bring your own special recipe. You are welcomed to bring 3 canned food goods for entry or $2. Again this will be held Feb. 23.

Other Events

Progressive dinner will be conducted sometime in March.

Help to build bears for children once a month on Saturday, all materials will be supplied Georgia, the president will supply more information on the next meeting. Bake sale still needs a date and facility the treasurer will supply this information on the next meeting.

T-shirts

Psychology Club t-shirts are wanted this will be available to all psychology majors. Please come with an idea on a t-shirt design next meeting!

Conferences

Regional Southeastern Psychological Association Conference this year March 17-19, $20 to join the conference and $25 to join SEPA registration increases after Feb 14. The conference will be held in Atlanta and transportation will be provided. A sign up sheet will be up at the next meeting to get a count of who wants to go. You will have to pack or bring money for your meals.

Georgia Psychological Society will hold a conference on campus the fee is $2.00 to join GPS and $2.50 to go to the conference April 7th and 8th. Students are more than welcomed to present past and present research at this conference. For further details contact Dr. Talor or Dr. Browne.

Association for Psychological Sciences will hold a conference in N.Y. May 27-30. The hotel will cost around $300 and the flight cost around $75. There will be a couple of thousand of people at this conference. Student registration is $75 and student membership is $35. For further detail contact Dr. Talor.

The meeting lasted 40 minutes 12:38pm to 1:18pm.

Next meeting discussions will include t-shirts, building bears for children, and additional events for the psychology club to host. Bring ideas about more activities you would like to do next meeting

Topics from the Psychology Club Meeting January 26, 2006

New Officers

The votes are in the new positions for the officers are

President- Georgia

Vice President- Natalie

Treasurer- T.J.

Secretary- Ebony

Chili cook-off

This year's chili cook-off will be held February 23, 2006 in the Psychology building. The prizes for the cook-off will be most unique, hottest, and best tasting. There will be a 2$ cover charge and drink will be supplied so bring an empty stomach!

Progressive Dinner

The long awaited progressive dinner will be held on March 25 or April 1, 2006. Please give your comments on what date best suites you!

Graduate Student Fair

This is an opportunity for undergrad student to get information about options after graduation. It will be held on February 21, 2006. Contact your advisor for more information.

Other events

Other events under consideration for this year are a canoe trip, paintball, volleyball, and a bake sale. The annual softball game will be held this semester during the month of April. Brown bag will be in February. GRE prep was discussed for the beginning of April; you may contact Dr. Talor for more information.

Pump it up

Some of the psychology club students are working out at 8:15 in the morning. Others are more than welcomed to join. Contact the president Georgia for more information.

Total minutes for the meeting were 35; it lasted from 12:50pm to 1:25pm.