Make a difference!
Be part of History! Learn how to make do!

Havana, Cuba 2016

Go Interdisciplinary! (June 7-19)

Content Class + SPAN + Immersion in Cuba This Program will include two weeks of academic classes on-line with VSU Faculty: one week before the study abroad (May 30th to June 6th) and another after the study abroad (June 20th to June 28th).

Cost: $ 3, 475

Includes: Airfare MIA-HAV-MIA, Lodging w/ a Cuban family, 2 meals per day, study trips, and excursions to the beach and amazing historic and scenic places, ground transportation. NOTE: The costs do not include Passport or travel to Miami.

Courses include Community Practicum course (SPAN 4980), various 3 credit-hour SPAN 2001, 2002, (Introductory SPAN courses) 2011, 3010 (Conversation) Latin American Survey SPAN 3270 or SPAN 4900, Special Topics, HIST 3030, 3040, 3050, 3060, 3070, 3080, 3090 Special Topics (20th Century Cuban History), 4304 The Caribbean, POLS 4830 Special Topics and Comparative Politics.

For More Information at Valdosta State University Contact:

Dr. Ericka Parra (MCL) ehparra@valdosta.edu. 2201 Ashley Hall. Ph. (229) 232-9041
Dr. Owen Jones (HIST) ojones@valdosta.edu. 2112 Ashley Hall. Ph. (229)-333-5947
Dr. Robert Harding (POLS) rcharding@valdosta.edu. West Hall 238. Ph. (229) 333-5777

Further Information: Contact the Center for International Programs:
Irina McClellan. Ph. (229) 333-7410 or ibmcclel@valdsota.edu

Join us!