

Field trip to a prosecutor headquarters in southern Taiwan

Below is series of photos taken from our field trips prosecutor office buildings in Taiwan. We toured judicial investigation chambers, investigative offices for defendants and victims, detention cells, and other service programs. After the tour, we had discussion forums with prosecutors. These young prosecutors answered our questions in English. The visits were highly professional and very interesting!

Two regional headquarters of prosecutor offices were visited

A prosecution investigation room, the prosecutor is the judicial chief

Detention cells inside the prosecutor building

Specially designed room for child abuse investigation

Discussion forum with prosecutors

Exit at the Citizen Service Center

