

Field trip to a district court in Taipei, Taiwan

The following photos were related to our visit in a Taipei district court. A juvenile judge toured the judicial building for our group. She arranged a meeting for us to converse with a chief judge and prosecutors. We also went inside a courtroom to observe a trial in progress. Like other field trips, this visit was fruitful and we all had fun!

A glimpse of courtroom in Shilin District Court, judge worn in blue robe, prosecutor in purple, green robe for public defender, white is for private lawyer, the clerk is in full black.

Our students presided as judges in a large trial room

A judicial conference room used by a juvenile judge

The above courtroom is used by the judge shown below in the center of the photo

Meeting and discussion with judge and prosecutor

A sign at the building entrance showing other services provided by the court administration such as help-yourself umbrella, free telephone paid via donations of court staff, censored washbowls for hand cleanser, maternity care room.

