FINANCE MAJOR

Sequencing of Finance Courses for the Junior and Senior Years *

JUNIOR YEAR

First Semester                           Second Semester

 BUSA 2100 – Applied Business Statistics # FIN 3360 -- Advanced Financial Management
FIN 3350 -- Financial Management FIN 4520 -- Investments

BUSA 2100 is a prerequisite or co-requisite for FIN 3350. It must be taken no later than the first semester of the junior year.

FIN 3350 is a prerequisite for all other FIN courses. It must be taken the first semester of the junior year.

#FIN 3360 is a prerequisite for FIN 4310, 4760, and 4900.

SENIOR YEAR

First Semester

FIN 4760 – Financial Institution Management
FIN 4310– Problems in Financial Management or FIN 4900 – Current Issues in Finance

##However, if you prefer FIN 4310, you will need to postpone it until the Second Semester of your Senior Year. It is offered only in the spring.

The Finance major also includes 12 hours of additional Finance-related electives. At least 3 hours must be in accounting and at least 3 hours must be in economics. The remaining 6 hours can be chosen from the following:

- FIN 4310 or 4900 – whichever one was not chosen above. Remember that FIN 3360 is a prerequisite for both of these courses.
- FIN 3370 – Financial Statement Analysis, offered only in the fall.
- FIN 3650 – Multinational Corporate Finance, offered only in the spring.

*See the Four-Year Graduation Plan link for a complete program of study for all four years.
Tips for planning your Finance program of study

Freshman year

- Go to the Student Advising Center for advising.
- Take courses when you are advised to take them.
- Don’t delay taking courses you are advised to take!

Sophomore year

- Go to the Student Advising Center for advising.
- Double-check your progress in completing your junior college core. Be sure you will complete it by the end of this year.
- Instructions for Spring semester advising:
  o First, go to the Advising Center to determine whether you have been admitted to the Langdale College.
  o When you are admitted to the Langdale College, meet with your Finance faculty advisor to set up a program of study to guide you in scheduling Finance courses for the last two years.

“Bridge” students

- “Bridge” students have completed 60 hours but are not yet admitted to the Langdale College. Some bridge students are eligible to take upper-level business courses. Check with the Student Advising Center.
- Bridge students are advised by the Student Advising Center, but bridge Finance majors should also consult with their Finance faculty advisors about scheduling Finance courses.
- If you are a bridge Finance major who is eligible to take upper-level business courses, your top priority should be to take BUSA 2100 and FIN 3350 as soon as possible. Remember that BUSA 2100 is a prerequisite or co-requisite for FIN 3350.

Junior and Senior years

- Failure to take BUSA 2100 and FIN 3350 by the end of the first semester of your Junior year may delay your graduation.
- Complete your Application for Degree within the first month of the first semester of your Senior year.
