Guiding Principles (DEPOSITS) (Adapted from the Georgia Systemic Teacher Education Program Accomplished Teacher Framework)

Dispositions Principle: Productive dispositions positively affect learners, professional growth, and the learning environment.

Equity Principle: All learners deserve high expectations and support.

Process Principle: Learning is a lifelong process of development and growth.

Ownership Principle: Professionals are committed to and assume responsibility for the future of their disciplines.

Support Principle: Successful engagement in the process of learning requires collaboration among multiple partners.

Impact Principle: Effective practice yields evidence of learning.

Technology Principle: Technology facilitates teaching, learning, community-building, and resource acquisition.

Standards Principle: Evidence-based standards systematically guide professional preparation and development.

InTASC Model Core Teacher Standards*

Standard #1: Learner Development. The teacher understands how learners grow and develop, recognizing that patterns of learning and development vary individually within and across the cognitive, linguistic, social, emotional, and physical areas, and designs and implements developmentally appropriate and challenging learning experiences.

Standard #2: Learning Differences. The teacher uses understanding of individual differences and diverse cultures and communities to ensure inclusive learning environments that enable each learner to meet high standards.

Standard #3: Learning Environments. The teacher works with others to create environments that support individual and collaborative learning, and that encourage positive social interaction, active engagement in learning, and self motivation.

Standard #4: Content Knowledge. The teacher understands the central concepts, tools of inquiry, and structures of the discipline(s) he or she teaches and creates learning experiences that make the discipline accessible and meaningful for learners to assure mastery of the content.

Standard #5: Application of Content. The teacher understands how to connect concepts and use differing perspectives to engage learners in critical thinking, creativity, and collaborative problem solving related to authentic local and global issues.

Standard #6: Assessment. The teacher understands and uses multiple methods of assessment to engage learners in their own growth, to monitor learner progress, and to guide the teacher's and learner's decision making.

Standard #7: Planning for Instruction. The teacher plans instruction that supports every student in meeting rigorous learning goals by drawing upon knowledge of content areas, curriculum, cross-disciplinary skills, and pedagogy, as well as knowledge of learners and the community context.

Standard #8: Instructional Strategies. The teacher understands and uses a variety of instructional strategies to encourage learners to develop deep understanding of content areas and their connections, and to build skills to apply knowledge in meaningful ways.

Standard #9: Professional Learning and Ethical Practice. The teacher engages in ongoing professional learning and uses evidence to continually evaluate his/her practice, particularly the effects of his/her choices and actions on others (learners, families, other professionals, and the community), and adapts practice to meet the needs of each learner.

Standard #10: Leadership and Collaboration. The teacher seeks appropriate leadership roles and opportunities to take responsibility for student learning, to collaborate with learners, families, colleagues, other school professionals, and community members to ensure learner growth, and to advance the profession.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Graded "Satisfactory" or "Unsatisfactory." A required non-credit course for all teacher education candidates pursuing a VSU recommendation for initial certification; must be successfully completed prior to admission to teacher education. Candidates are required to establish an electronic portfolio and provide evidence that all teacher education admission requirements have been satisfactorily met. If an "Unsatisfactory" grade is earned, the course must be repeated until a "Satisfactory" grade is received.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOKS/RESOURCE MATERIALS

In lieu of a textbook, all students are required to purchase access to the College of Education and Human Services technology-driven assessment system. The LiveText software will be used throughout your professional program and is introduced in this course (https://www.livetext.com/).

COURSE OBJECTIVES

1. Students will meet all admission to teacher education requirements and document meeting those requirements.

2.Students will demonstrate knowledge of expectations of the profession including current codes of ethics, professional standards and practice and relevant laws and policies (INTASC S9, $EDL_{1,1}$).

COURSE ACTIVITIES/ASSIGNMENTS/REQUIREMENTS

Students will meet all admission to teacher education requirements and document meeting those requirements. These requirements are:

1. Have a major leading to teacher certification. Thus, for example, if you are pursuing the early childhood education certification you should be majoring in Early Childhood Education or if you are pursuing the Spanish certification you should be majoring in Spanish with a concentration in Foreign Language Education. Whether your major is correct can be determined by viewing your transcript in BANNER. Questions about whether your major is an approved teacher education program can be directed to the CoEHS Advising Center at (229) 259-5502.

2. Either exempt or earn passing scores for all components of the GACE Program Admission Assessment (test numbers 200, 201, 202, or Combined Tests 700) OR GACE Basic Skills Assessment (approximate cost of $128). Additional information about this assessment can be found in the GACE Program Admission Assessment BlazeVIEW course module. These test scores must also be posted on the "Teacher Education Admission Information" page in BANNER in order to be admitted into Teacher Education. This upload is automatically completed by VSU Information Technology but if these test scores do not appear on the "Teacher Education Admission Information" page in BANNER within one week of receiving your passing scores, please contact the COEHS Advising Center at (229) 259-5502 or COE advisingcenter@valdosta.edu.

Minimum test scores needed to exempt the GACE Program Admission Assessment and GACE Basic Skills Assessment are:

- •
- SAT: 1000 (Math and Reading)
- ACT: 43 (Math and English)
- GRE before August 1, 2011: 1030 (Verbal and Quantitative)
- GRE on or after August 1, 2011: 297 (Verbal and Quantitative)

3. Register for and complete the GaPSC Educator Ethics Entry Assessment (cost of $30). Prior to taking the assessment, review the GaPSC Educator Ethics Entry Assessment BlazeVIEW course module. This assessment score must also be posted on the "Teacher Education Admission Information" page in BANNER in order to be admitted into Teacher Education. This upload is automatically completed by VSU Information Technology but if this assessment score does not appear on the "Teacher Education Admission Information" page in BANNER within one week of receiving your scores for all modules, please contact the COEHS Advising Center at (229) 259-5502 or COE_advisingcenter@valdosta.edu.

Note: As soon as you have met the above requirements, you can apply for admission to Teacher Education. Instructions for doing this can be found in the Application for Admission into Teacher Education BlazeVIEW course module.

4. Once you have been admitted to Teacher Education, you will receive an email regarding the application for the GaPSC Pre-service Certificate. You must be issued the GaPSC Pre-service Certificate or hold a valid GaPSC Provisional Certificate prior to the end of the semester to earn a grade of 'S' in 2999. All candidates are required to hold a valid GaPSC Pre-service Certificate or valid GaPSC Provisional Certificate in order to enroll in professional coursework courses. Note: If you already hold a valid GaPSC Pre-service Certificate, you do not need to apply for a GaPSC Pre-service Certificate.

5. Provide evidence of current professional liability insurance and have it documented on the "Teacher Education Admission Information" page in BANNER by turning it in to the COEHS Advising Center (Education Center, Room 1020), faxing it to the COEHS Advising Center at (229) 245-3722 or emailing it to COE advisingcenter@valdosta.edu. Note: If you are an employed teacher, you may be able to obtain a signed waiver of liability insurance from your school system administrator. See the Liability Insurance BlazeVIEW course module for more information about liability insurance.

6. Purchase and activate a LiveText account (available for purchase at the VSU Bookstore or at Error! Hyperlink reference not valid. if you have not purchased LiveText in a previous semester. The LiveText version you will need to purchase is LiveText Student Membership - Field Experience Edition and the cost is $113.

7. Complete the LiveText BlazeVIEW course module in this course if you have not completed the online module in a previous semester.

8. Complete (if you did not complete this form in a previous semester) the required Entry Educator Disposition Form and Writing Assignment in LiveText. Review the LiveText BlazeVIEW course module for more information. Check your "Teacher Education Admission Information" page in BANNER if you are not sure about your completion status. Review the module for due dates for completing this LiveText form and assignment.

9. Review your Program of Study in the Program of Study BlazeVIEW course module and complete the Program of Study Confirmation quiz. This requirement may have been satisfied a previous semester so check your "Teacher Education Admission Information" page in Banner if you are not sure about your completion status.

You must continue to register for and take the appropriate 2999 course for your major every semester until you are admitted to Teacher Education and earn a grade of 'S' in 2999.

Note: Completing FLED 2999 in your first semester with a grade of 'S' is a condition of continuation for the FLED MAT program.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

The university attendance policy will be adhered to in this class. Some voluntary information sessions will be held online at the beginning of the semester. Please refer to the BlackBoard Collaborate module in this course for information regarding how to connect to these sessions.

PROFESSIONALISM

The following areas describe the professional expectations for all teacher candidates in the Dewar College of Education and Human Services. (These expectations were developed by faculty in the Department of Middle Grades, Secondary, Reading, & Deaf Education.)

Professionalism – Ethics

Educators are professionals guided by ethical commitments to their students, their families and to the communities in which they work. (See: The Code of Ethics for Educators at http://www.gapsc.com/Rules/Current/Ethics/505-6-.01.pdf). Professional values of teachers include respect, integrity, collaboration, active participation, building alliances, resolving conflicts, and reflective, intellectual inquiry. It is expected that future teachers conduct themselves with the professionalism that is required of practicing teachers. If at any time a student's actions or attitudes are judged to be less than professional appropriate remedial action will be taken.

Professionalism-Communication

Effective written and verbal communication skills are critical to you as a professional educator as you interact with students, colleagues, administrators, and parents. Those individuals whose communication skills (verbal or written) indicate a need for assistance will be referred to the appropriate services on campus.

Professionalism - Assignments:

All assignments should conform to the professional standards expected of university students. Papers must be typed, double-spaced in an appropriate font style and size with no spelling or grammatical errors. Assignments will be graded on content, composition, spelling, punctuation, and grammar. In papers, ideas obtained from sources must be documented using APA style. Proofread and correct papers before they are submitted.

Professionalism - Diversity

Professional educators are expected to embrace diversity. A variety of materials and instructional strategies will be used to meet the needs of different learning styles of diverse learners in the class. Students will be provided with opportunities to gain the knowledge, skills and understanding to provide effective instruction in multicultural classrooms. Mutual respect for people of diverse characteristics, beliefs, and abilities should be evident for all teacher candidates.

Professionalism - Technology

As part of our conceptual framework, the College of Education is committed to preparing professional educators who are technology competent. As a result, technology has been infused into our education courses.

Statement on Academic Integrity

Educators are professionals guided by ethical commitments to their students, their families and to the communities in which they work. (See: The Code of Ethics for Educators at http://www.gapsc.com/Professionalpractices/NEthics.asp) Professional values of teachers include respect, integrity, collaboration, active participation, building alliances, resolving conflicts, and reflective, intellectual inquiry. Future teachers should conduct themselves with the professionalism that is required of practicing teachers.
