

THE BARTRAM AWARD

The Bartram Award recognizes exceptional achievement in a University Honors Program student who has demonstrated the skills of intellectual exploration, adventure, and achievement.

Application Form

In order to apply for this award, you must be able to answer “Yes” to the following questions:

- Do you have a minimum GPA of 3.30?
- Are you of sophomore or junior standing?
- Are you active in the Honors Program, or have you completed all Honors Program requirements? (Note: being active is defined as having taken at least two honors courses in the last year.)
- Have you asked a faculty member to write a letter of recommendation based on the work you speak about in this application?

Faculty member’s name: _____

Your Name: _____ SSN: _____

Your Local Address: _____

Major: _____ Phone: _____

E-mail: _____

Title of Your Work or Project: _____

Attach this cover sheet to an essay of no more than five hundred words detailing the project or specific work you have been engaged in that demonstrates exceptional research, scholarly, or creative activity in a particular course of study. Please include some supporting materials to document your statements. You may retrieve these materials from the Honors House after Honors Day in April. In order to be considered, this application form and all other materials (including letter of recommendation) must be submitted to the Honors Program at the Honors House by March 1, 2013.

Signature: _____ Date Submitted: _____

(attesting to the veracity of the information contained herein)