

Technology Spotlight: Google Docs

This is our new monthly workshop where we introduce new and exciting educational technologies that relate to the field of Distance Learning. This month we will be showcasing Google Docs. Come to this session and get up to speed on this free collaboration tool that lets you upload documents online to edit and share (with those you grant access) and then save documents back to your computer.