

Campus Wellness Event

PRESENTS

Using the Internet to Research Health Information Speaker Topic

Presenter Anita Ondrusek will give a virtual tour of reliable health information sites including the new health consumer information site called Georgia Go Local. Georgia Go Local is a federally-funded initiative to link users of the National Library of Medicine's premier consumer health information website to health services and providers in their local community.

Speaker

Anita worked for 12 years as a medical librarian. She is currently the coordinator for the new Health Sciences Librarianship track in VSU's Master of Library and Information Science program.
