Speaker: Dr. Marty Giddings, Professor and Director of the Division of Social Work.

Marty has been at the Division of Social Work at VSU for 11 years. She has a Ph.D. in Child & Family Development from the University of Georgia (1984) as well as an MSW (1974) from UGA, and she is a licensed clinical social worker. During her clinical career, she has engaged in clinical practice with children, adolescents, and their families in both agency and in private practice. At VSU, she is actively engaged in scholarship and grant writing in the areas of clinical supervision, field education, and teaching practice skills. In the past few years, she has developed an interest in agency administration and staff supervision.
