

Sex Crimes Rubric for Editorial Essay

Student:

Description	Points Possible	Your Score
Report Format & Submission 400-500 words; double spaced; one inch margins; 12 font; Times New Roman; clear organization; coherent presentation, use of transitions; no separate title page; title and by line on first page, list references on separate page alphabetical order by author, indent each paragraph using tab. Please introduce or preview your position in the opening paragraph. Then provide the body of your argument, followed by your conclusion. Please use parenthetical reference in the in the paper, followed by a separate reference page.	25
Content This is an issue paper on sex crimes in the US. As sex crimes continue in the prevalence and severity of crimes of violence, our society has favored harsher penalties under the crime control perspective. You are to take a stance on this issue and use and document your position with no less than 3 separate resources. Your paper should include a succinct conclusion that summarizes the points discussed, but no new information is introduced.	50
Overall effect, clarity, coherence, fluency, spelling, grammar, mechanics, word choice, etc. Please spell and grammar check.	25
Total Points Possible (Your paper may be revised to receive maximum points)	100	