Courses Offered

The courses offered on this trip can either be used as part of the CORE curriculum (PHIL-2010 in Area C), or as part of a senior curriculum (PHIL-3060, REL 3330 / 4700 in major or minor for PHIL/REL, upper level electives for most majors, or in some cases substituted for course in a related major)

PHIL 2010 Fundamentals of Philosophy / PHIL 3060 History of Ancient Philosophy 3hrs

A study of some of the most famous and influence ethical writings of the ancient world. From the Pre-Socratics, to Athenians, to the Stoics and Hellenistic writers, we'll be reading and discussing their cosmologies and theologies and they connected them to eudemonia—the good life.

REL 3330 New Testament / REL 4700 Archaeology of Early Christianity 3hrs

A study of the history, thought, and literature of the early Christian church. The study will be done against the historical and cultural background of the major archaeological sites which we will visit including Rome, Athens, Corinth, and Ephesus.
