

NEW FACULTY AND RETURNING FACULTY (RE) ORIENTATION SCHEDULE

FALL 2025

This year's New and Returning Faculty (Re)Orientation is designed to provide full-time VSU faculty members with the following:

- (1) The opportunity to meet and build community with faculty from across the university.
- (2) An introduction—or reintroduction—to Valdosta State University—its mission and plans as well as your role as faculty member.
- (3) An overview with the resources, materials, and modalities available for teaching and advising.

All activities will be held face-to-face; returning faculty should register for the “All Faculty” sessions they plan to attend through VSU's Employee Training Portal. Materials and hand-outs from sessions will be available to new faculty in their BlazeVIEW course titled, “New Full-Time Faculty ACYR 25-26.” This course should be available by August 1st.

Monday, August 4 and Tuesday, August 5 for New Faculty

By appointment Our Human Resources Team will be available to meet with new faculty in the HR office to complete any necessary paperwork and to answer questions.

Tuesday, August 5

5-7 pm For New Faculty: Getting to Know VSU and Each Other
STEAM Center You and a guest are invited to join us for this reception where you will (1302 N. Patterson St.) have the opportunity to meet each other and learn about how to gain the most from orientation. Our President, members of the VSU cabinet, our Interim Provost and members of the Deans' Council will be there to greet you.

Wednesday, August 6

Beverage service will be provided in both the morning and afternoon.

9:30-11:00 am For All Faculty: A Faculty Member's Role in a Comprehensive Public University
Meet VSU's Interim Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs, Dr. Sheri Noviello who will be leading an interactive discussion about the role faculty play in a comprehensive university and VSU's and Academic Affairs' strategic goals and initiatives, and how you can get involved.

11:15-12:15 For All Faculty: "Rules of the Road"
Dr. Sheri Gravett, Associate Provost for Academic Programs and Services, will share guidelines and resources useful for designing courses and preparing syllabi, including learner-centered approaches to course policies such as attendance, academic honesty, and more.

BREAK (12:15-1:45)

Afternoon Sessions

1:45-2:45 pm For All Faculty: Strategies for Success for Students (and Faculty)
STEAM Center New and experienced faculty members face the same challenges: engaging students in course content, meeting students where they are, helping students manage time productively, promoting effective study habits, and encouraging the use of campus resources, among others. Join us to participate in a lively discussion about strategies to help students (and faculty) succeed.

3:00-4:30pm For All Faculty: Developing a Campus Culture of Wellness
STEAM Center As faculty members, you have a role in being part of a campus environment that fosters well-being for student success. Join our panel to learn more about campus resources as we discuss how to promote safety, well-being, and student success.

Thursday, August 7

Beverage service available in the morning and afternoon.

Morning Sessions
STEAM Center
(1302 N. Patterson St.)

9:00-11:00 am For All Faculty: Tips for Effective Teaching the First Day F2F or Online
Dr. Jamie Landau will introduce you to VSU's CELT (Center for Excellence in Learning and Teaching) and explore evidence-based strategies to get your class off to a successful start, whether you are teaching face-to-face or online.

- 11:15 am-12:15 pm For All Faculty: Introduction to Banner
Our registrar, Mr. Stanley Jones, will introduce you to VSU's computer system as well as to important policies and procedures.
- 12:15-1:45 On Your Own Lunch with a VSU Faculty Colleague
Sign up to have lunch at a local restaurant with a VSU faculty member—meet a faculty colleague and learn a bit about the town at the same time!

Afternoon Sessions

- 2:00-3:00 pm For New Faculty: Systems Orientation/Technology Support
Odum Library 3270 Information Technology (IT) will provide you with information regarding the various technology systems, technology training resources, Solution Center services, and computer security.
- 3:15-4:15 pm For All Faculty: Intro to Online Teaching at VSU, including BlazeVIEW
Odum Library 3270 CELT-eLearning's Training Specialist, Bryan FitzGerald, will provide an overview of educational technologies available at VSU, including BlazeVIEW (VSU's learning management system). Additionally, he will cover requirements for CELT-eLearning's Online Teaching Certificate, the growth in online learning, VSU policies related to online teaching, the Online College for Career Advancement (OCCA) at VSU, as well as special considerations for FERPA in an online course.
- 4:30-5:30 pm For All Faculty: Learn BlazeVIEW
Odum Library 3270 Complete Learn BlazeVIEW in-person in a computer lab with CELT-eLearning's Training Specialist. Usually offered as an asynchronous online course, this interactive training during new faculty orientation introduces all faculty to VSU's learning management system and counts as 1-credit hour toward CELT-eLearning's Online Teaching Certificate. This course covers the basic functionality of BlazeVIEW and helps learners navigate the landing page and their course pages.

Friday, August 8

- 9:00-10:30 am For New Faculty: Benefits? Retirement? Tell me more!
