The Harley Langdale, Jr. College of Business Administration at Valdosta State University offers the Master of Business Administration (MBA) program and a Master of Accountancy (MAcc) program. With five other AACSB-accredited business schools in Georgia, the Langdale College also offers a collaborative, web-based Master of Business Administration (WebMBA) program. Valdosta State University graduates from both programs receive the same VSU Master of Business Administration degree.

The MBA and WebMBA programs are designed to offer graduate business education that prepares graduates for management careers in both for-profit and not-for-profit organizations. The programs integrate knowledge of the functional areas of business with ongoing developments in business practice. Furthermore, the programs seek to develop students' critical thinking, problem-solving, and communication skills, appreciation for diverse cultural perspectives, and ability to solve real-world business problems.

The MBA and WebMBA programs are fully accredited by AACSB International—The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business, the premier national accrediting agency for programs in business administration. This accreditation places the Langdale College in the top 5% of all business schools worldwide.

The MAcc is a specialized graduate degree that prepares its graduates for careers in public accounting. The program integrates accounting knowledge within the broader context of the other functional areas of business. The MAcc program seeks to develop students' critical thinking, problem-solving, communication, and technology skills.

The Langdale College occupies Pound Hall and Thaxton Hall on VSU's Steele North Campus. These state-of-the-art facilities include multi-media classrooms, a student computer lab, and two computer teaching classrooms.

Prior to admission to any graduate program at Valdosta State University applicants must first submit a completed application packet to the Graduate School. A completed application packet includes official transcripts from all institutions previously attended, official test scores (GMAT or GRE), completed application form, fee, and any additional program requirements submitted by the admission deadline. To be considered for the preferred term all required materials must be received by the Graduate School no later than the close of business on the deadline. It is the responsibility of the applicant to allow adequate time for document submission and to ensure receipt of documents.

GEORGIA WEBMBA® PROGRAM
“GEORGIA’S MBA FOR THE NEW MILLENNIUM”

The collaborative, web-based Master of Business Administration (WebMBA) program is offered by five AACSB-accredited business schools in Georgia (Valdosta State University, Kennesaw State University, Georgia College and State University, Georgia Southern University, and University of West Georgia). The purpose of this program is to enhance the graduate educational opportunities for working business professionals in Georgia. To view the Georgia WebMBA Consortium Web Site, please see <www.webmbaonline.org>.

All five schools admit students, who participate in a common curriculum. Each WebMBA consortium school provides faculty who are academically or professionally qualified. The faculty members for this program are among the strongest graduate faculty for each school in terms of teaching, research, and business experience.

A new WebMBA cohort is admitted each Fall Semester. Two WebMBA courses will be offered each semester, including summer terms. A student may complete the entire program in five semesters.

Web MBA and MBA Learning Goals

MBA students will be:

1. Competent in the business disciplines, using appropriate accounting, marketing, economics, quantitative methods, organizational behavior, finance, or production knowledge and tools to make a business decision in that functional area.
2. Critical thinkers, using concepts from strategic management to integrate relevant information, decision-making techniques, and concepts from multiple business functions to make decisions in new or unpredictable environments.
3. Effective communicators, using information technology and oral and written skills to enhance decision making through better communication.
4. Proficient in making ethical and legal decisions, recognizing cultural differences in the legal and ethical implications of business decisions.
5. Globally cognizant, identifying management issues in a global environment with disparate business views and culturally diverse customers and employees.
6. Team players and leaders, demonstrating the team and leadership skills needed to make a business decision.

Examples of Goal Assessments

1. Students complete knowledge tests related to relevant learning objectives for each course.
2. Students complete class exercises, group projects and present cases in oral and written form.
3. Faculty observe and rate students on teamwork and leadership skills.

COLLEGE OF THE ARTS

Dr. John C. Gaston, Dean
2273 Fine Arts Building

Assistant Dean: Mr. Mike Savoie
Department of Art: Mr. A. Blake Pearce, Head
Department of Communication Arts: Dr. Carl Cates, Head
Department of Music: Dr. James A. Shrader, Head

The Valdosta State University College of the Arts includes the Department of Art, the Department of Communication Arts, and the Department of Music. The organization of the disciplines of the performing and visual arts into one academic unit reflects a traditional and continuing commitment to scholarship in the fine arts.

The College of the Arts offers graduate degree programs with majors in communication and music education in cooperation with the College of Education. The graduate faculty members of the College of the Arts maintain the strong belief that their teaching role is a significant aspect of their professional life. Arts faculty members also maintain a strong commitment to scholarly and creative research as well as service to the institution, region, and to their profession.

The College of the Arts mission centers on the preparation of professionals for a variety of roles in the arts. At the graduate level, the Master of Arts in Communication degree program prepares students for study at the doctoral level and for advancement in their professional fields. The Master of Music Education program prepares teachers in these disciplines to be leaders in their schools and provide substantial learning for the students in their care. The Master of Music Performance is a 36-semester-hour, non-thesis master's degree program intended to further the musical and academic skills of accomplished musicians.

The College of the Arts provides numerous cultural and artistic opportunities for students including theater, dance, Valdosta Symphony Orchestra, jazz band, media production and art exhibitions. The college is also home to VSU TV, the University's cable-access channel. The Valdosta State University College of the Arts is an accredited institutional member of the National Association of Schools of Art and Design, National Association of Schools of Music, National Association of Schools of Theater, the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, and the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education.

DEPARTMENT OF ART
Mr. A. Blake Pearce, Head
Room 109, Fine Arts Building

The Department of Art, in conjunction with the Department of Middle, Secondary, Reading, and Deaf Education, offers the Master of Education degree with a major in secondary or middle grades education–teaching field ART.

Students entering the Master of Education degree have already met initial certification requirements for art education, Field 11, and consequently, have the necessary foundations in art and professional education for advanced study. In their graduate work, students working in the art content area are required to take 21 hours of art, art history, and art education or other related courses within the content and specialization requirements for the degree. This degree track includes 9 semester hours of graduate art education courses taught by art education faculty. Required art education courses include an advanced seminar concerned with developments in philosophy of education and with contemporary problems in art education (ARED 7500). ARED 7450 includes a review of curriculum developments, teaching methodology, innovations, and multidisciplinary concepts as they relate to contemporary needs and developments in art and art education.

Course work for the primary content courses of the program is chosen from among the advanced courses in studio, art/design history, analysis, criticism, philosophy of art, art education. The track requires a minimum of one advanced course in art/design history, one in studio, and one in art/design analysis.

Students are expected to complete a final project indicating achievement within a specialized area of inquiry pertaining to the classroom.

Students enrolled in the art track will be expected to work with the faculty in Art Education and Middle, Secondary, Reading, and Deaf Education Departments to facilitate advising and portfolio development.

Selected Educational Outcomes for Advanced Teacher Education Programs

1. Students in advanced teacher education programs have an in-depth knowledge of the content that they teach.
2. Students in advanced teacher education programs select and use a broad range of instructional strategies and technologies that promote student learning and will clearly explain the choices they make in their practice.
3. Students in advanced teacher education programs reflect on their practice and are able to identify their strengths and areas of needed improvement.
4. Students in advanced teacher education programs analyze student, classroom, and school performance data and make data-driven decisions about strategies for teaching and learning so that all students learn.

Selected Program Assessments (Advanced Teacher Programs)

1. Majors in advanced teacher education programs will demonstrate the level of their content knowledge through performance on comprehensive examinations or completion of capstone project.
2. Majors in advanced teacher education programs will demonstrate their use of instructional strategies and technologies through completion of a self-evaluation of a teaching episode.
3. Majors in advanced teacher education programs will document reflection and will identify areas of strengths and areas for improvement through completion of the COE Advanced Teacher Self-Assessment Instrument.
4. Majors in advanced teacher education programs will demonstrate their ability to positively impact P-12 learning through documentation of student performance and achievement in an electronic portfolio.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNICATION ARTS

Dr. Carl Cates, Head
Room 1011, Nevins Hall

The Department of Communication Arts offers a graduate program that leads to a Master of Arts in Communication (M.A.C.). Majors in speech communication and mass media are available, and both majors share a common core of four courses in theory and research methods. The M.A.C. prepares students for study at the doctoral level and for advancement in their professional fields. Students studying speech communication will be educated in the advanced theory and practice of communication in such areas as interpersonal, intercultural, and organizational communication, in addition to conflict management and advanced presentational skills. Students studying mass media will be educated in the theory of practice of media economics and management, law and ethics, and digital communication. Thesis and non-thesis options are available. Both programs seek to enhance students' communication, critical thinking, problem-solving skills, leadership potential, as well as an appreciation for cultural diversity.

Selected Educational Outcomes for Speech

1. To demonstrate the ability to develop research questions in the field of communication, design research methodologies using qualitative or quantitative methods, conduct research, and report findings.
2. To demonstrate competency in the knowledge of general communication theory, and, more specifically, interpersonal, organizational, conflict resolution, and intercultural communication theories.
3. To produce systematic and thoroughly researched work appropriate to the discipline.
4. To demonstrate competency in professional communication skills in a variety of settings including public speaking, speechwriting, group leadership, and interviewing in a manner that is culturally sensitive.
5. To demonstrate the development and refinement of critical thinking abilities in communication.
6. To participate in activities related to the profession.

Outcome Assessments for Speech

The department assesses the extent to which the program requirements create the desired outcomes by using a variety of techniques.

1. The policy of the Department of Communication Arts is that all graduate courses, other than skills courses, require such written work as essays and research papers to help determine progress in research and written communication skills, analytical and interpretive skills, and mastery of course content.
2. For graduate skills courses, students must demonstrate competency through written projects and performance of skills learned, in addition to assessing the performance of others.

3. The comprehensive written and oral examinations to which students not selecting the thesis option are subject prior to graduation evaluate the students' ability to integrate and apply information and skills learned in the program of study. They also measure the effectiveness of the program in teaching essential concepts.
4. Program graduates demonstrate their collaborative efforts through reports and presentations throughout the program. They are assessed by direct observation by department faculty.
5. Students not selecting the comprehensive examination option will complete a thesis that will be evaluated by department faculty.
6. When available, university-wide data pertaining to the program and its graduates will be used for assessment and improvement.

Selected Educational Outcomes for Media

1. To demonstrate the ability to develop research questions in the field of media, design research methodologies using qualitative or quantitative methods, conduct research, and report findings.
2. To demonstrate competency in the knowledge of general mass media theory, and, more specifically, the application of media theory and its impact and ramifications upon society.
3. To produce systematic and thoroughly researched work appropriate to the discipline.
4. To demonstrate competency in professional media industries in a variety of settings including content production, analysis, and audience response.
5. To participate in activities related to the profession.

Outcome Assessments for Media

The department assesses the extent to which the program requirements create the desired outcomes by using a variety of techniques.

1. The policy of the Department of Communication Arts is that all graduate courses, other than skills courses, require such written work as essays and research papers to help determine progress in research and written communication skills, analytical and interpretive skills, and mastery of course content.
2. For graduate skills courses, students must demonstrate competency through written projects and performance of skills learned, in addition to performing assessments on the performance of others.
3. The comprehensive written and oral examinations to which students not selecting the thesis option are subject prior to graduation evaluate the students' ability to integrate and apply information and skills learned in the program of study. It also measures the effectiveness of the program in teaching essential concepts.
4. Program graduates demonstrate their collaborative efforts through reports, field-based projects, and presentations throughout the program. They are assessed by direct observation by department faculty and by documentation in a professional portfolio.
5. Students not selecting the comprehensive examination option in the graduate program will complete a thesis that will be evaluated by departmental faculty.
6. When available, university-wide data pertaining to the program and its graduates will be used for assessment and improvement.

DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC

Dr. James A. Shrader, Head
Room 259, Fine Arts Building

The Department of Music offers instruction in music and music education leading to the Master of Music Education degree or to the Master of Music in Performance degree

The Master of Music Education (M.M.Ed.) degree is offered for music educators who wish to further develop their competence in music teaching and to enhance their credentials in the music education profession. These studies are designed to explore the materials and methodology of musical instruction in depth and to develop the ability to understand and evaluate research in music and music education.

The Master of Music in Performance (M.M.P.) is a 36-semester-hour, non-thesis master's degree program intended to further the musical and academic skills of accomplished musicians. Its purpose is to prepare musicians for careers in professional performing, conducting, and studio teaching. Students in the M.M.P. degree program will refine their performance skills to an advanced degree, deepen their knowledge of the academic and research aspects of music, and further develop their pedagogical skills

The College of Nursing offers a program that leads to a Master of Science in Nursing (M.S.N.) degree.

Master's nursing education builds on baccalaureate nursing education and prepares nurses for specialized clinical roles. The M.S.N. program offers three clinical tracks: Advanced Nursing of Growing Families, Advanced Nursing of Adults, and Psychiatric/Mental Health Nursing. Four role options are available to graduate students: Care Manager, Nurse Practitioner, Nurse Educator, and Nurse Administrator. Graduate students must select one clinical track and one role option. The College offers a special curriculum for Registered Nurse applicants leading to the B.S.N. or to both the B.S.N. and M.S.N. Please contact the College directly for information about this accelerated curriculum. Both the bachelor's degree (B.S.N.) and the master's degree (M.S.N.) programs in the College of Nursing are accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education, One Dupont Circle, NW, Suite 530, Washington, DC 20036. Telephone 202-887-6791; Fax 202-887-8476. Questions about accreditation status may be addressed to this organization.

All students take a common core before entering the clinical and role options. The common core includes pathophysiology, research, theory, and an issues seminar.

MSN Program Objectives

1. Synthesize knowledge from a variety of evidence (conceptual models and theories from nursing and related disciplines, practice wisdom, and ethics) in advanced nursing practice.
2. Employ scientific inquiry and other ways of knowing to validate, refine, and develop knowledge relevant to advanced nursing practice and the delivery of health care services.
3. Effect health policy and promote change through leadership, innovation, and management expertise.
4. Practice advanced nursing in collaborative relationships across disciplines and with communities.
5. Demonstrate health care informatics literacy within the context of advanced nursing practice.
6. Promote culturally competent systems that reflect the global context of health.
7. Implement strategies for ongoing personal and advanced professional development through professional involvement, lifelong learning, and fostering an appreciation for doctoral study.

Program Considerations for Probationary Status (M.S.N. and R.N.-M.S.N. Option)

Students must be recommended for Probationary status by the College of Nursing Graduate Faculty. To be reclassified as Regular status, probationary students must, at a minimum, maintain a 3.0 grade point average in the first 9 semester hours of graduate coursework and meet any and all contingencies and conditions set forth by the College of Nursing.

Program Retention, Dismissal and Readmission Policies (M.S.N. and R.N.-M.S.N. Option)

1. Students must have documentation of current malpractice insurance of $1,000,000/$3,000,000;
2. Students must have documentation of current health and accident insurance;
3. Students must have documentation of current certification in CPR;
4. Students must maintain current licensure as a Registered Nurse;
5. Students must provide evidence of current health status, TB testing, hepatitis-B vaccine, Varicella titer, MMR, and tetanus;
6. Students must have a minimum grade of C in all nursing courses;
7. Students must have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 for all graduate courses;
8. Students receiving two grades below “C” (“D,” “F,” “WF,” or “U”) will be dismissed from the program.
9. If dismissed from the program, the student must wait a minimum of two semesters and obtain approval from the academic department, before applying for readmission. The academic program reserves the right to place specific conditions and contingencies on any offer of readmission. Readmission is not guaranteed and prior academic performance and conduct in the program will be considered.
10. The maximum time allowed for completion of the master’s degree is seven calendar years. No work completed more than seven years prior to degree completion will be accepted toward the degree, except with special permission from the student’s major professor, the Dean of the College of Nursing, and approval from the Dean of the Graduate School.
11. No more than 6 semester hours of academic work may be transferred from another institution into a master’s-level graduate program. This credit must be documented in the form of an official transcript at the time of admission. Transfer credit will be evaluated after admission, by the academic department. To be eligible, credit must be no more than seven years old prior to completion of the degree.

Program Graduation Requirements (M.S.N. and R.N.-M.S.N. Option)

1. Students must complete an application for graduation one semester prior to their expected graduation date;
2. A 3.0 cumulative grade point average (GPA) is required. for graduation. No grade below a “C” will be credited toward the degree.

3. Satisfactory completion of the comprehensive examination covering the areas of theory, research, the clinical focus, and the selected role.
4. Successful completion of a thesis or project.

The Division of Social Work offers a Master of Social Work degree. Social Work is a profession committed to improving the quality of life for all individuals. Social workers perform a variety of roles in many settings and are eligible for professional certification and state licensure. The Master of Social Work degree program at Valdosta State University is designed to prepare students for advanced generalist practice. Social workers in advanced generalist practice use their skills as direct service providers in interventions with individuals, families, groups, organizations, as well as in communities, in the role of supervisors, managers, administrators, researchers, and social planners.

MASTER OF SOCIAL WORK

Selected Educational Outcomes

1. Using the strengths perspective, graduates will practice without discrimination and with respect, knowledge, and skills that are appropriate for the range of human differences.
2. Graduates will demonstrate the ability to practice at increasing levels of complexity using specialized theories and practice methods.
3. Graduates will demonstrate elements of leadership and the ability to shape the professional environment.
4. Graduates will demonstrate an increasing ability to engage in informed and systematic self-directed practice.

Examples of Outcome Assessments

1. Students must complete all academic requirements to a satisfactory degree, including 1,000 clock hours of practicum.
2. Students must submit a portfolio to the faculty during the last semester in residence, which reflects the way in which they met all program objectives.

This program is accredited by the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE). VSU graduate students who are not enrolled in the M.S.W. program may take elective courses with the permission of the Director of the Division of Social Work, but required courses are restricted to M.S.W. students. The M.S.W. program is cohort-based, and the order of courses is strictly determined by selection of program. Academic credit will not be given for life experience or previous work experience.

Program cohort options and detailed programs of study are available at the Division of Social Work office and website <www.valdosta.edu/sowk>. Students are admitted to one of the following cohort options:

- (1) On-campus option: Full-Time (2-year); Part-Time (3- or 4-year);
- (2) Web-based (3-year) including 5 weekends of on-campus classes each semester;
- (3) Advanced Standing option: Full-Time On-Campus (1-year); Full-Time Web-Hybrid (1-year); Part-Time On-Campus (2-year); Part-Time Web-Hybrid (2-year).

Advanced Standing students may request either the on-campus or web-based option and may elect to attend classes full-time or part-time. The Advanced Standing option is available only to students who received a Bachelor of Social Work (B.S.W.) from a CSWE-accredited program in the last 5 years. Additional admission requirements apply. Enrollment in this option is extremely competitive, and space is limited.

Prior to admission to any graduate program at Valdosta State University, applicants must first submit a completed application to the Graduate School. A completed application packet includes official transcripts from all institutions previously attended, official test scores (GRE, MAT), completed application form, fee, and any additional program requirements (listed below), submitted by the admission deadline. To be considered for the preferred term, all required materials must be received by the Graduate School no later than the close of business on the deadline. It is the responsibility of the applicant to allow adequate time for document submission and to ensure receipt of documents.

Application Deadlines

Deadline for applications is March 15 of each year. Applications received after the deadline will be considered on a space-available basis. Classes start in May or August for regular M.S.W. students and in May for Advanced Standing students (B.S.W.).

Field Practicum

Students in the M.S.W. program complete two separate year-long practicum experiences. These field placements in social service agencies run concurrently with coursework and allow students an opportunity to integrate classroom content with actual practice experiences. Students are required to complete 16 to 18 hours per week in practicum, depending on program cohort option. Practicum placements are geographically limited and determined by the Director of Field Instruction.

MASTER OF LIBRARY AND INFORMATION SCIENCE

Dr. Wallace Koehler, Director
Odum Library

The mission of the Master of Library and Information Science (MLIS) Program, accredited by the American Library Association, is to provide a quality publicly supported education for generalists and specialists in the library and information science fields. Its primary focus is to educate librarians for academic, public, and special libraries in Georgia. The 39-hour non-thesis program combines brief periods of face-to-face instruction with Internet instruction and distance education. The program is designed for students who cannot leave jobs and families to return to a single campus for extended periods. Face-to-face classes will be held in various locations based upon geographic convenience for the class.

New students begin in the fall or spring semesters. MLIS 7000, Foundations of Library and Information Science, offered every fall and spring, is prerequisite or corequisite to many other MLIS courses.

For additional information about the Master of Library and Information Science Program, see < <http://www.valdosta.edu/mlis/> >.

Selected Educational Outcomes

Competence within the context of the MLIS program will be defined, in part, on the degree candidate's ability to:

1. Utilize knowledge, ethics, skills, and service-oriented behaviors to facilitate information-seeking, in general, and to customize those professional attributes to the needs of at least one distinct library- type setting (public, academic, or special), in particular.
2. Apply principles of knowledge organization (including descriptive cataloging and subject-oriented classification schemes) in libraries and information centers.
3. Investigate authentic (real-world) professional scenarios through observations, interviews, surveys, fieldwork, or other means appropriate to experiencing library and information center operations first-hand.
4. Communicate ideas, proposals, rationales, findings, or problem solutions clearly and concisely to professors, colleagues, and classmates using modes, media, and technologies appropriate to the circumstances.
5. Devise management plans based upon institutional criteria associated with libraries and information centers in areas such as access, collections, personnel, acquisitions, programming, and technology.

Examples of Outcome Assessments

Evaluation of an MLIS degree candidate's competencies will be based, in part, upon:

1. Completion of a professional portfolio, composed as a self-portrait of the author's achievement and potential. Individual portfolios are graded pass-fail in the MLIS Foundations course and serve as one cornerstone of the MLIS Capstone course.
2. Production of bibliographic descriptions of library materials based upon professional cataloging standards. The instructor examines the relevancy of the data elements, the adherence of the description to formatting rules, and low composition errors as part of the grading rubric.
3. Fulfillment of objectives related to supervised fieldwork. Objectives are based upon the student's goals and are mutually developed by the student, the site supervisor, and the evaluating professor.
4. Participation in electronic communications via asynchronous modes (discussion groups or e-mail) and synchronous modes (chat sessions or teleconferencing) as assessed by effective conveyance of ideas (e.g., clarity and conciseness of language) and the effort exhibited (e.g., number of transactions or time online).
5. Authorship of documented papers written in a scholarly style and that meet specific course requirements.

Prior to admission to any graduate program at Valdosta State University, applicants must first submit a completed application to the Graduate School. A completed application includes official transcripts from all institutions previously attended, official test scores (GRE or MAT), completed application form, fee, and any additional program requirements submitted by the admission deadline. To be considered for your preferred term all required materials must be received by the Graduate School no later than the close of business on the deadline. It is the responsibility of the applicant to allow adequate time for document submission and to ensure receipt of documents.
