Highlights... Stratford-upon-Avon, Stonehenge, Cotswolds, Oxford, North Wales, Lake District, Edinburgh Castle, York, London

Day 1: Saturday, October 8, 2016
Overnight Flight Feel the vibrant energy of England, hear the unique sounds of Scotland and see the rolling countryside of Wales on a trip that combines the exploration of dramatic history and natural wonders.

Day 2: Sunday, October 9, 2016
Stratford-upon-Avon, England - Tour Begins Your tour opens in Stratford-upon-Avon, the birthplace of William Shakespeare, England’s most famous playwright. Walk in Shakespeare’s footsteps as you visit his birthplace. This afternoon, it’s your choice! You may choose to tour Anne Hathaway’s thatch-roofed cottage, the childhood home of the author’s wife; or, enjoy a leisurely cruise along the picturesque Avon River. Tonight, join your fellow travelers for a private dinner at Hall’s Croft, a 400-year-old Shakespeare-family home. As traditionally costumed actors perform some of the playwright’s most renowned scenes, toast the beginning of a wonderful journey. (D)

Day 3: Monday, October 10, 2016
Stratford - Stonehenge - Cotswolds - Stratford Your day begins with a trip to Stonehenge. Discover the legends of this mystical and fascinating site before traveling through some of England’s most beautiful countryside. Explore the picturesque villages of the Cotswolds region before returning to Stratford for an evening at leisure. (B)

Day 4: Tuesday, October 11, 2016
Stratford-upon-Avon - Oxford - Ruthin Castle, Wales Make a stop in scholarly Oxford, home of the famous university which is more than 800 years old. Explore the Welsh countryside before ending your day with an overnight stay in beautiful Ruthin Castle, situated in the north of Wales. (B, D)

Day 5: Wednesday, October 12, 2016
Wales - Lake District, England - Edinburgh, Scotland Depart Wales for England’s picturesque Lake District. Visit the charming village of Grasmere, home of the poet William Wordsworth. Continue on to the border town of Gretna Green, where generations of runaway couples came to be married. Today's final destination is Edinburgh, the "Athens of the North." Discover Scotland's exciting capital city which is rich in beauty and culture. This evening, enjoy dinner at a local restaurant. (B, D)

Day 6: Thursday, October 13, 2016
Edinburgh Today it's your choice! You may choose to get acquainted with this regal city on a locally guided panoramic city tour. Or, for a different perspective, join a local expert to explore the city on foot. Both tours include visits to Edinburgh Castle, home of the Scottish Crown Jewels; and the Palace of Holyroodhouse, * the Queen’s official residence in Edinburgh and former home of Mary, Queen of Scots. The remainder of the day is free to independently explore the city. (B)

Day 7: Friday, October 14, 2016
Edinburgh - Borders Region - York, England Depart Edinburgh for Scotland’s Borders region. Stretching across the country you will find Hadrian’s Wall which once marked the northern border of the Roman Empire. Stop to see this ancient fortification that was begun in A.D. 122 to protect Roman Britain from the tribes of Scotland. Journey to the medieval city of York. Take a stroll through its charming streets to see the famous Minster and walk on the “Shambles,” a quaint, narrow street that appears today almost as it did during the Middle Ages. Here you’ll find great shopping and a street that is so narrow in parts that you can almost reach both sides with your outstretched arms. Tonight, stay within the city’s historic walls. (B)

Day 8: Saturday, October 15, 2016
York - London Enjoy a leisurely morning to explore York before continuing to London, the cosmopolitan and historic capital of Britain. Enjoy an afternoon at leisure to explore this iconic city. This evening, perhaps you will choose to join an optional dinner followed by one of the city’s spectacular theater performances. (B)

Day 9: Sunday, October 16, 2016
London Complete your visit to Britain with a city tour of London. See the quintessential sights of the city with your local guide. View the Tower of London, Big Ben, the Houses of Parliament, Westminster Abbey, Buckingham Palace and the changing of the guard (if held). Tonight, toast to the end of a wonderful trip at your farewell dinner. (B, D)

Day 10: Monday, October 17, 2016

London - Tour Ends Your journey through Britain comes to a close today. (B)

Experience It! A Shakespearean Evening

William Shakespeare is undoubtedly one of the greatest literary forces of all time. In his hometown, spend an evening being transported back to Elizabethan times as you enjoy a private dinner in Hall’s Croft, the elegant home of William Shakespeare’s daughter Susanna and her husband, Dr. John Hall. Begin your evening with a tour of the home and gardens before sitting down for a delicious meal of traditional English favorites. During dinner, members of the “Shakespeare Aloud!” acting troupe will amuse, entertain and inspire you with excerpts from Shakespeare’s best-known works. Sit back and take in scenes from many of his classic plays that have been enjoyed by audiences for 400 years.
