

VSU Graduate School Newsletter

August, 2022

Welcome: Fall 2022

We are excited you are joining VSU!!

More than 750 new graduate, specialist, and doctoral students are joining VSU this Fall. The New Graduate Student Kickoff was held August 18th (virtual) and August (19th) in person.

If you were not able to attend the kickoff, the virtual Q&A event is recorded and available on the Graduate Student Orientation page. You will also find videos of the campus resources available to all graduate students including eLearning, Odum library, IT Services, Grad Student Wellness along with others.

Did you know?

Funding is available to present your research

If you are invited to present a paper, poster, creative performance, or workshop presenter, you can apply for up to $500 from the Graduate School. The funding covers travel, hotel, and registration expenses. You can apply here

Funding is limited so be sure to apply as soon as possible.

You can also seek up to $300 from the Student Government Association. See the SGA Allocation Committee page for more information.

Note: DegreeWorks is not accurate for all graduate programs. Please consult with your program advisor for your program of study requirements.

Graduate Student Study Room

Odum Library

We have exciting news!!!

There is a new space just for graduate students in the Odum Library. You can use the space to study, have meetings, and collaborate with fellow grad students.

The room is 1629 Odum Library (across from the old Blaze mascot.) The keypunch code to enter to Study Room is 1103. (The code will change each semester so watch for updates)
