

ETHOS STUDENT ETHICAL LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

ETHICS | TEAMWORK | HONOR | OPPORTUNITY | SERVICE

Valdosta State University invites high school juniors and seniors to a half-day leadership experience held in conjunction with VSU's annual Ethics Week. Through interactive, real-world learning, students strengthen the judgment, confidence, and character needed to lead with integrity in school, college, the workplace, and their communities.

PROGRAM AT A GLANCE

THINK

Examine real-world ethical dilemmas and consider how values shape decisions.

LEAD

Build communication, teamwork, confidence, and critical-thinking skills.

APPLY

Connect ethical leadership to college, career, community, and everyday life.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What can students expect?

Upon arriving on the beautiful campus of Valdosta State University, students will participate in a brief campus tour. Following the tour, they will engage in interactive workshops, ethical decision-making activities, leadership discussions, and career-focused experiences. The program emphasizes respect, honesty, integrity, responsibility, and service.

How long is the program?

The program is a half-day experience from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. and includes lunch.

Who should participate?

Schools are asked to select 15 students who are juniors or seniors and who represent a variety of backgrounds, experiences, and academic strengths. Students do not need to hold formal leadership positions or have the highest academic standing. Consider students who show potential, would benefit from greater confidence and exposure, or bring a valuable perspective.
