

VSU Biology Department
Eleventh Annual Graduate Student Research Symposium
November 6 – November 13, 2020
Bailey Science Center Second Floor Atrium

Poster Presentations:

Damion Castellano	Phenotyping Peanut Resistance to Nothopassalora personata Prior to Penetration.
Matthew L. Cowan	Quantitative Analysis of the Trends Exhibited in Four Organ Types, Ten Cell Types, and Six Molecule Types
Braxton Crews	Effects of Lithium Chloride on Lyngbya wollei
Emily Evans	Surveillance of Permethrin Resistance in Valdosta populations of Aedes albopictus via the CDC Bottle Bioassay
Jaelle Hector	The Effects of Hurricane Michael on Diatoms at St. Joe Bay, Florida
Blake D. Lamb	Comparison of Gopher Tortoise and Nine-Banded Armadillo Commensal Fauna
Christopher H. Le	Survival Reassessment of 2008 and 2009 PIT-Tagged Gopher Tortoise Hatchlings Released at Reed Bingham State Park, Cook County, Georgia

Poster Presentations: Second floor of the Bailey Science Center, in the open area outside of the Biology Department office. Posters will be up by 1:00PM on Friday. Graduate students will be available for one-hour time periods during the week of Nov. 4 – Nov. 8 to discuss their posters in a socially-distanced manner.