Course description: An introduction to the history and philosophy of biology and related sciences. The development and evolution of major theories and techniques, and interactions between science and culture will be emphasized.

Scope & Objectives: By the end of the course students are expected to be able to describe the development of the life sciences as a form of inquiry including major paradigm shifts and their consequences. Students will also explain how technological developments have affected human understanding of the living world and recognize the impact advances in biological knowledge have had on society and human culture. This corresponds to Educational Outcome 1 (Develop and test hypotheses, collect and analyze data, and present the results and conclusions in both written and oral formats used in peer-reviewed journals and at scientific meetings.) for the Department of Biology as listed in the current VSU catalogue. 3 credit hours.

Prerequisite: None.

Text: A History of the Life Sciences, Third Edition, Revised and Expanded by Lois N. Magner 2002.

Alignment of Course Objectives with VSU General Education Outcomes: The course objectives and expectations described above align with VSU General Education Outcomes 2, 3, and 4.

(2.) Students will demonstrate cross-cultural perspectives and knowledge of other societies. They will possess sufficient knowledge of various aspects of another culture, including the language, social and religious customs, aesthetic expression, geography, and intellectual and political history, to enable them to interact with individuals within that society from an informed perspective. They will possess an international viewpoint that will allow them to examine critically the culture of their own nation and to participate in global society.

(3.) Students will use computer and information technology when appropriate. They will demonstrate knowledge of computer concepts and terminology. They will possess basic working knowledge of a computer operating system. They will be able to use at least two software tools, such as word processors, spreadsheets, database management systems, or statistical packages. They will be able to find information using computer searching tools.

(4.) Students will express themselves clearly, logically, and precisely in writing and in speaking, and they will demonstrate competence in reading and listening. They will display the ability to write coherently in standard English; to speak well; to read, to understand, and to interpret the content of written materials in various disciplines; and to listen effectively and to understand different modes of communication.

Student proficiency in meeting these outcomes will be assessed by exams, writing assignments and oral presentations as described below.

Course requirements & grading policy: Students are expected to attend all scheduled lectures and participate in discussions in class. Attendance at lectures may not be recorded daily after the Drop/Add period but students are expected to attend all lectures and up to 10 extra credit points may be awarded for attendance. Regardless of attendance, each student is responsible for all material presented in class and must attend when tests are given and when assigned work is due. The instructor is not obligated to provide lecture notes or other material to absentee students or to offer make-up examinations. Students with valid, documented excuses (eg. a death in the immediate family) may receive special consideration but must contact the instructor immediately and provide documentation if asked. COVID-specific policies that relate to attendance are described in a separate section below.

Assessment will consist of:

Exams (4 exams, 100 points each)

Short writing assignments, quizzes or homework (50 points)

Final Examination (100 points)

Total: 550 points

Grade Scale: A 90-100%

B 80-89%

C 70-79%

D 60-69%

F < 60%

Exams will include some combination of multiple choice, fill in the blank or matching questions. Short writing assignments will require discussion of literature associated with topics covered in class. In addition, students may be required to research assigned topics, discuss them in class or prepare a PowerPoint presentation to be given to the entire class. The comprehensive final exam will be given Wednesday, May 5 at 10:15 in 1111 Jennett Hall.

Academic Integrity:

Academic Honesty Policy: Cheating, plagiarism (submitting another person's material as one's own, or doing work for another person which will receive academic credit) are all impermissible. This includes the use of unauthorized books, notebooks, or other sources in order to secure or give help during an assignment or exam, the unauthorized copying of examinations, assignments, reports, or term papers, or the presentation of unacknowledged material as if it were your own work. In this particular course, removing or altering collection information associated with specimens is considered a violation of the Academic Honesty Policy and will be treated in the same manner as any other violation.

Students are responsible for knowing, understanding and complying with the VSU Student Code of Conduct, in Appendix A of the Student Handbook (<http://www.valdosta.edu/stulife/handbook/>) If substantial evidence exists for a violation of this policy, the student(s) involved will receive a grade of 'F' for the course and an official record will be filed following the Academic Integrity Response along with a letter to the Dean of Students. Special needs:

Students with disabilities who are experiencing barriers in this course may contact the Access Office for assistance in determining and implementing reasonable accommodations. The access Office is located in Farbar Hall. The phone numbers are 229-245-2498 (V), 229-375-5871. For more information, please visit VSU's Access Office or email: access@valdosta.edu.

Administration of online Student Opinion of Instruction (SOI):

At the end of the term, all students will be expected to complete an online Student Opinion of Instruction survey (SOI) that will be available on BANNER. Students will receive an email notification through their VSU email address when the SOI is available (generally at least one week before the end of the term). SOI responses are anonymous to instructors/administrators. Instructors will be able to view only a summary of all responses after they have submitted final grades. While instructors will not be able to view individual responses or to access any of the data until after final grade submission, they will be able to see which students have or have not completed their SOIs. These compliance and non-compliance reports will not be available once instructors are able to access the results. Complete information about the SOIs, including how to access the survey and a timetable for this term is available at SOI Procedures and Timelines (located at <https://www.valdosta.edu/academics/academic-affairs/sois/> under "Information for Students - Directions for Accessing and Completing SOIs").

COVID-19 POLICIES

This course is offered as a face-to-face class. Although we continue to practice social distancing and everyone must wear a face covering while in class, the physical size of the classroom is large enough to accommodate all students registered for the class at the same time. Therefore, this class will meet regularly in person on the schedule as listed in Banner (Tuesday/Thursday 11- 12:25). If students must be absent due to a quarantine or isolation requirement for COVID-19, they must report this situation via the COVID Self Reporting Link in MyVSU and through the Dean of Students Office to report any other absences as well. For those circumstances, or if students have been granted an accommodation by the VSU Access Office, they may be allowed to access the class remotely.

FACE COVERINGS

As the Blazer Creed articulates, members of the VSU community are expected to live by the high standards of civility, integrity, and citizenship and embrace their responsibility as a member of the Blazer community. In recognition of this responsibility, and in response to the best available science and current guidance from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and the Georgia Department of Public Health, every student must wear a face covering that covers their nose and mouth at all times while in any campus building, including in this classroom. This requirement is intended to protect the health and safety of all VSU students, the instructor, and the entire university community. Anyone attending class without a face covering will be asked to put one on or leave. Students should also be sure they maintain a distance of at least six feet away from their fellow students and instructor and are seated in a seat that is designated to ensure that distance. Students who refuse to wear face coverings appropriately or adhere to other stated requirements may face disciplinary action for Code of Conduct violations.

CORONAVIRUS RESOURCES FOR STUDENTS

VSU cares about student success both on and offline, and a variety of resources are available to help students academically and personally during the Spring 2021 semester.

One of the best resources is VSU's Coronavirus FAQ page located at <https://www.valdosta.edu/health-advisory/faq.php>. Information is available there about a variety of topics in VSU's return-to-campus plan. A website devoted to the health and wellness of VSU students can be seen at <https://www.valdosta.edu/administration/finance-admin/campus-wellness/student-resources.php>.

In this class, students will regularly use the following applications :

- Office 365 for access to VSU email and to Microsoft applications that we will use regularly (Outlook, Teams, Word, Excel, PowerPoint, etc.).
- BlazeVIEW

ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION

Regular attendance and participation are essential for success in class. Therefore, students are expected to attend class as scheduled and must complete assignments as outlined in the syllabus. If students are absent, they should follow the course's attendance policy. If students must be absent due to a quarantine or isolation requirement for COVID-19, they must report this situation via the COVID Self Reporting Link in MyVSU and through the Dean of Students Office to report any other absences as well. Instructors will not alter the schedule for individual students unless arrangements have been made in advance.

SPRING 2021 REVISED CALENDAR:

In order to mitigate the health risk of an extended break to the Blazer community, Valdosta State University will eliminate its 2021 weeklong spring break (originally scheduled for March 15-19). However, classes will still begin as originally scheduled on Monday, January 11, and final exams will conclude on Friday, May 7. To allow both students and faculty some needed break time during the course of the semester, VSU will instead use the five days allotted for spring break at various points during the semester as wellness days. These dates are as follows:

- Tuesday, February 16
- Wednesday, March 17
- Friday, April 2
- Thursday, April 15
- Monday, May 3 (Reading Day)

On those days, the university will be open but no classes will be held and no assignments or assessments should be due, in order to ensure that students get some actual break days. There is one additional holiday day: Monday, January 18, when the university will be closed in honor of the Martin Luther King, Jr. National Holiday.
