General Scholarship Application

To apply for College of Education and Human Services Scholarships, please complete the following application. The criteria for individual scholarships can be viewed at <http://www.valdosta.edu/colleges/education/deans-office/coehs-scholarships/>

Applications are due by midnight Wednesday, February 21, 2018. An application will be considered incomplete if any required information is missing. Incomplete applications will not be reviewed by the committee.

The application has three parts:

Candidate Information Selection of Scholarship(s) Required Questions

You will be asked to provide the following information in order to complete your College of Education and Human Services Scholarship application. Please have this information ready before beginning your application.

1. Describe your anticipated career path and the goals you hope to accomplish within your chosen field. If you plan to be an educator, please provide specific reasons you chose this career.

2. Provide a description of your financial need. This will be comprised of two parts:

A. First you will need to copy and paste the "Award Package by Aid Year" information which can be found in Banner: Log in, click Student and Financial Aid→ Financial Aid→ My Award Information. This report should include AID YEAR of the current academic year. Provide the following information:

- Estimated family contribution
- Cumulative Loan Information
- Need Calculation

Financial need cannot be assessed without this information. Those who are not yet enrolled at VSU may skip this step.

B. Provide a narrative statement describing the nature of your financial need. If you are a graduate student and currently have a graduate assistantship (GA), please provide your stipend for this position. If you anticipate having a graduate assistantship next year, please indicate this information, as well as your anticipated stipend.

3. Provide a description of your service involvement (i.e., community service or volunteerism) and any documentation you have of that service. Then respond to the following:

- A. Describe how your service has influenced your growth as a person and/or professional.
B. Describe the impact your service has had on the community.

If part of your answer includes service for which you were paid, (including work completed as a graduate assistant), clearly identify which service activities were paid and which were unpaid.

Note: Question 3 is only required for Dorothy Dewar Service, Robert A. Hull, Elizabeth Darlene Sikes, Alheida B. Seever, Louise Stanford Chastain, & Carson McLane Scholarships.

Candidate Information:

Carefully complete the requested information. The information you provide will determine which scholarships you qualify for. Once your qualification for a particular scholarship is determined, you will have the opportunity to view and apply for that scholarship. Please go to <http://www.valdosta.edu/colleges/education/deans-office/coehs-scholarships/> to view the criteria to qualify for each scholarship. After each scholarship, a window should open indicating if you successfully applied for that particular scholarship.

If you think you are qualified for a particular scholarship but the scholarship is not presented as an option on this application or you believe you successfully applied for a scholarship but the window does not appear indicating success, please contact Jennifer Lambert-Shute, at jjshute@valdosta.edu

Required Questions for All Scholarship Applications

To complete your application, complete the following required questions which apply to ALL scholarships.

Career Goals:

1. Describe your anticipated career path and the goals you hope to accomplish within your chosen field. If you plan to be an educator, please provide specific reasons you chose this career.

Financial Need:

2. Provide a description of your financial need. In addition, copy and paste the "Award Package by Aid Year" information, which can be found in Banner. Log in, click Student and Financial Aid --> Financial Aid --> My Award Information. This report should include AID YEAR of the current academic year. Please include all of the information provided by Banner in this section.

If you are a graduate student and currently have a graduate assistantship (GA), please provide your stipend for this position. If you anticipate having a graduate assistantship next year, please indicate this information, as well as your anticipated stipend.

Financial need cannot be assessed without this information. Omitting any information will result in an incomplete application which will not be reviewed by the committee.

Service Activities:

Only answer this question if you have applied for Dorothy Dewar Service, Robert A. Hull, Elizabeth Darlene Sikes, Alheida B. Seever, Louise Stanford Chastain, and/or Carson McLane Scholarships.

3. Provide a description of your service involvement (i.e., community service or volunteerism) and any documentation you have of that service. Then respond to the following:

- A. Describe how your service has influenced your growth as a person and/or professional.
- B. Describe the impact your service has had on the community.

If part of your answer includes work in which you were paid, including work completed as a graduate assistant, be clear in communicating which service activities were paid and which were unpaid.

Thank you for submitting an COEHS common application.
