

Marriage & Family Therapy Advisory Council April 24th, 2015

Agenda

Welcome Dr. Kate Warner

Introductions and sharing of good news Advisory Members & MFT Faculty

Updates:

- Military Families Learning Network Grant
- New Faculty
- The space dilemma, we are growing but our space is not!
- Recent curriculum changes:
 - Diversity, Inclusion, & Social Justice, updated, moved to Spring
 - Relational Theory, Practice, and Ethics, renamed
 - MFTH 7050: Diverse Families: Clinical Perspectives, elective*, introduced and overwhelmingly popular (replacing Family Sociology)

New Business:

- Merit Raise Formula
- New Accreditation Standards
 - Client Contact & Supervision Requirements and the definition of "relational"
- Curriculum changes in development:
 - GRE/MAT scores
 - Removing un-used classes
 - Creating Client Contact opportunities in the first year and addressing issues with clients who have graduating therapists