2012 Area I Curriculum Map and Assessment

Area I: Theoretical Foundations	Syllabi Specific Learning Outcomes	Program Outcomes			Student Learning Outcomes				MFT Core Competencies Domain						MFT Educational Guidelines						Assessment (satisfactory or...)	Changes Needed	Action Steps	Target Date
		1	2	3	1	2	3	4	1	2	3	4	5	6	I	II	III	IV	V	VI
Total		6	6	23	6	21	23	17	22	10	19	18	5	1	25	0	0	2	0	0
Percentage ([Sum of Row/25]*100)		24	24	92	24	84	92	68	88	40	76	72	20	4	100	0	0	8	0	0
MFTH 6800: Orientation to MFT Practice and Ethics	This course introduces students to the foundational epistemology that underpins systemically informed family therapy. We will take an in-depth look at theories that use metaphors of system, pattern, and interaction to make sense of human behavior.		1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1			1						S

MFTH 6800: Orientation to MFT Practice and Ethics (con't)	Students will become familiar with the values and ethics associated with a systemic orientation.			1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1		1			1		S
	Students will have a working understanding of a systemic epistemology.		1	1		1	1	1	1	1	1	1		1					S
	Students will be able to articulate the difference between the world of substance and the world of information, as well as a general understanding of the following concepts and distinctions.				1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1		1			1		S

Area I: Theoretical Foundations	Syllabi Specific Learning Outcomes	Program Outcomes			Student Learning Outcomes				MFT Core Competencies Domain						MFT Educational Guidelines						Assessment (satisfactory or unsatisfactory)	Changes Needed	Action Steps	Target Date
		1	2	3	1	2	3	4	1	2	3	4	5	6	I	II	III	IV	V	VI
MFTH 7101: Family Systems Theories	To become familiar with the descriptive metaphors which describe the various family therapy theories.			1		1	1	1	1		1	1			1						S
	To become familiar with the theoretician(s) associated with each family therapy theory.			1		1	1	1	1						1						S

MFTH 7101: Family Systems Theories (con't)
To become familiar with the history of the family therapy field.			1				1	1					1						S
To examine the family therapy theories in light of the historical contexts from which they arose, including how they address issues of class, race, gender privilege, and power and control.		1	1	1	1	1		1	1	1	1	1	1						S

MFTH 7101: Family Systems Theories (con't)	To have working familiarity with the following theories of family therapy: Collaborative, Emotionally Focused, Bowenian, Experiential, Feminist FT, Milan, MRI, Narrative, Solution-Focused, Strategic, and Structural			1		1	1	1							1					S

MFTH 7101: Family Systems Theories (con't)	To conceptualize the basic premises of change and stability from the viewpoint of the above family therapy theory.			1		1	1	1	1	1	1			1					S
	To begin your initial preparation for the national licensure exam in Marriage and Family Therapy.			1			1	1					1	1	1					S

MFTH 7101: Family Systems Theories (con't)	To become acquainted with the following key people from the field of family therapy.			1			1	1	1						1						S

Area I: Theoretical Foundations	Syllabi Specific Learning Outcomes	Program Outcomes			Student Learning Outcomes				MFT Core Competencies Domain						MFT Educational Guidelines						Assessment (satisfactory or unsatisfactory)	Changes Needed	Action Steps	Target Date
		1	2	3	1	2	3	4	1	2	3	4	5	6	I	II	III	IV	V	VI
MFTH 7103: Advanced Theories Seminar (Change)	Have a better understanding of Mindfullness and how to use these skills in therapy.		1		1	1			1		1	1			1						S

MFTH 7103: Advanced Theories Seminar (Change) (con't)
Have a greater understanding of how problems are viewed according to their orientation of change.	1		1		1	1	1	1		1	1		1					S
Have a better understanding on how to guide therapy with clients.	1	1	1	1	1	1		1	1	1	1		1					S
Describe their view of change and how this occurs in practice.	1		1		1	1	1	1		1	1		1					S

MFTH 7103: Advanced Theories Seminar (Change) (con't)

	Implement interventions based on their orientation of change.	Describe for professionals in their field their orientation to problems and change.
	1	1
	1	1
	1
	1	1
	1	1
	1
	1
	1	1
		1
	1	1
	S	S

Area I: Theoretical Foundations	Syllabi Specific Learning Outcomes	Program Outcomes			Student Learning Outcomes				MFT Core Competencies Domain						MFT Educational Guidelines						Assessment (satisfactory or	Changes Needed	Action Steps	Target Date
		1	2	3	1	2	3	4	1	2	3	4	5	6	I	II	III	IV	V	VI
MFTH 7103: Advanced Theories Seminar (Hypnosis)	Have a better understanding of Mindfulness and how to use these skills in therapy. I.e., Understand the theoretical underpinnings of Ericksonian hypnosis			1	1	1			1		1	1			1						S

| MFTH 7103: Advanced Theories Seminar (Hypnosis) (con't) | Have a greater understanding of how problems are viewed according to their orientation of change, i.e., learn the basic skills of interpersonal trance and forming trance relationships and describe and discuss (1.) the cooperation principle, (2.) utilization, and (3.) the experience of trance as a naturalistic process | | 1 | | 1 | 1 | 1 | 1 | 1 | 1 | 1 | | 1 | | | | | S | | | |

MFTH 7103: Advanced Theories Seminar (Hypnosis) (con't)	Have a better understanding on how to guide therapy with individual clients, i.e., learn to cultivate culturally-sensitive conversations in hypnosis	1		1	1	1	1		1		1	1		1				S

MFTH 7103: Advanced Theories Seminar (Hypnosis) (con't)	Have a greater understanding of how problems are formed according to their orientation of change and how this happens in practice			1		1	1	1	1		1	1		1					S

MFTH 7103: Advanced Theories Seminar (Hypnosis) (con't)	Implement interventions based on their orientation of change, i.e., learn to develop culturally-sensitive memes, metaphors, and stories in trance construction			1		1	1	1	1		1	1		1					S

MFTH 7103: Advanced Theories Seminar (Hypnosis) (con't)	Be able to describe for professionals in their field a personal view or orientation to problems and change, how this occurs in practice, i.e., describe the basic tenants involved in evoking hypnotic responses		1	1			1	1	1	1	1	1		1					S			