Statement of MFT Program Alignment with Relevant Regulatory Bodies

The Marriage and Family Therapy (MFT) Master's Degree Program at Valdosta State University is committed to providing comprehensive, high-quality education and training that adheres to the relevant rules, laws, and professional standards set forth by the state of Georgia. This includes compliance with regulations concerning supervision, clinical practice, licensing, mental health services, and MFT education.

In alignment with Georgia state laws and licensing requirements, the MFT program ensures the following:

1. Supervision Requirements:

The MFT program abides by the Georgia Composite Board of Professional Counselors, Social Workers, and Marriage and Family Therapists regulations for clinical supervision. All clinical practice experiences within the program are supervised by licensed marriage and family therapists (LMFTs) or qualified mental health professionals who meet the Board's requirements for approved supervisors in the practice of Family Therapy.

2. Clinical Practice

The program ensures that students receive practical clinical training in settings that comply with Georgia's regulations on mental health practice. This includes observing appropriate ethical standards, clinical competencies, and client protection measures, all in accordance with the Georgia Composite Board's guidelines for MFTs.

3. Licensing Preparation

The MFT program prepares students to meet the educational requirements for licensure as a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT) in Georgia and other states. The curriculum is designed to meet the educational standards and competencies outlined by the Georgia Composite Board, ensuring graduates are eligible to sit for the licensing examination and pursue licensure in Georgia.

4. Mental Health Standards

The program aligns with Georgia's mental health laws to ensure that students are educated in ethical practice, confidentiality, and client safety, as well as the legal standards for diagnosing and treating mental health disorders in accordance with state regulations.

5. Accreditation and MFT Education

The Marriage and Family Therapy Master's Degree Program at Valdosta State University is designed to comply with the educational standards established by the Commission on
