The web-based Master of Social Work Program at Valdosta State University uses cutting edge technology to make quality graduate education more accessible through a combination of face-to-face instruction and online learning. It is designed to meet the needs of people who wish to complete a MSW degree, yet are unable to attend weekly class meetings in the tradition face-to-face setting.

Coursework (Online & Weekend Format)

The interactive nature of Social Work requires that students master both course materials and the interpersonal skills that they will use in their professional practice. Therefore, web-based MSW students come to the VSU campus one weekend per month and meet in face-to-face classes Friday evening and all day Saturday. The remainder of coursework is completed online with BlazeView.

Timeline & Field Practicums

The web-based program takes 3 years to complete. Students take only coursework the first year. During the second and third years, students complete both coursework and field practicums. Field placements require a significant commitment of time each week and may require additional travel.
