COURSE ACTIVITIES/ASSIGNMENTS/REQUIREMENTS

Leadership Learning Activities: (40 points; 4 assignments 10 points each)

Leadership topics with associated activities from your readings will be assigned during the semester. Full details for completing the learning activities are found in the Leadership Learning Activities Document in the Course Documents folder. Other posts involving interacting with the instructor and your classmates will be announced.

Leadership Project (Interview & Essay): (30 points)

You will choose an individual you consider a professional leader and arrange an interview to gain information you will share with this class in a presentation. The content of the interview will focus on the individual's leadership skills and why you have chosen him/her as a leadership model applicable to leadership in library and informational science. Full instructions for this assignment are found in the Leadership Project Instructional Document in the Course Documents folder.

Leadership Project (Presentation): (30 points)

You will introduce the leader you interviewed in a presentation to the class via Blackboard Collaborate. Full instructions for this assignment are found in the Leadership Project Instructional Document in the Course Documents folder.

COURSE EVALUATION:

Leadership Learning Activities	40 points (4 assignments)
Leadership Project Interview/Essay	30 points
Interview Project Presentation	30 points

Grading Scale:

Course grades will be awarded as follows:

A: 90 - 100 points	A Always satisfactory, often excellent
B: 80 - 89 points	B Mostly satisfactory, occasionally excellent
C: 70 - 79 points	C Sometimes satisfactory, often needs revisions
D: 60 - 69 points	D Rarely satisfactory, often perfunctory, late or missing
F: fewer than 60 points	F Lacking even an attempt to learn or do, dishonesty, plagiarism

NO grade below a C will be credited toward a VSU graduate degree. To be eligible to receive an A for the course a student must complete every assignment.

An overall grade of zero can be assigned to an entire paper or project if the instructor determines that its contents, or parts of its contents, were completed by a second party or copied into a paper or project from a source without proper citation. Noncompliance with rules on appropriate use of resources will result in zero credit for those parts of the assignment affected. If you are unsure about the parameters for an assignment, ask for clarification.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

This is a web-based course, with no required face-to-face meetings. Synchronous online chat sessions may be scheduled in consultation with the students.

PROFESSIONALISM

The Department of Library and Information Studies expects that MLIS students will pursue their academic endeavors and conduct themselves in a professional and ethical manner. All work that a student presents to satisfy course requirements should represent his or her own efforts, including appropriate use and acknowledgement of external sources. The student will be timely and complete with assignments and other engagements. The student will communicate in a professional manner in both speech and writing. The student will maintain a professional attitude, being respectful to others and their viewpoints, and seek to maintain objectivity. The student will exercise an awareness of the pervasiveness of the online environment and strive to maintain a professional online presence.
