Guiding Principles (DEPOSITS)
(Adapted from the Georgia Systemic Teacher Education Program Accomplished Teacher Framework)

Dispositions Principle: Productive dispositions positively affect learners, professional growth, and the learning environment.

Equity Principle: All learners deserve high expectations and support.

Process Principle: Learning is a lifelong process of development and growth.

Ownership Principle: Professionals are committed to and assume responsibility for the future of their disciplines.

Support Principle: Successful engagement in the process of learning requires collaboration among multiple partners.

Technology Principle: Technology facilitates teaching, learning, community-building, and resource acquisition.

ALA’s Core Competences of Librarianship

1. Foundations of the Profession: The librarian understands the role of library and information professionals in the promotion of democratic principles and intellectual freedom (including freedom of expression, thought, and conscience), the legal framework within which libraries and information agencies operate; and the certification and/or licensure requirements of specialized areas of the profession.

2. Information Resources: The librarian understands the concepts and issues related to the lifecycle of recorded knowledge and information; the acquisition and disposition of resources; and the management and maintenance of various collections.

3. Organization of Recorded Knowledge and Information: The librarian understands and uses the principles involved in the organization, representation, and classification of recorded knowledge and information.

4. Technological Knowledge and Skills: The librarian understands and uses information, communication, assistive, and related technologies consistent with professional ethics and prevailing service norms and applications.
5. Reference and User Services: The librarian understands and uses the concepts, principles, and techniques of reference and user services to provide access to relevant and accurate recorded knowledge and information to individuals of all ages and groups.

6. Research: The librarian understands and uses the fundamentals of quantitative and qualitative research methods to evaluate and assess the actual and potential value of new research.

7. Professionalism: The librarian understands the necessity of continuing professional development of practitioners in libraries and other information agencies; the role of the library in the lifelong learning of patrons; and the application of learning theories, instructional methods, and achievement measures in libraries and other information agencies.

8. Administration and Management: The librarian understands the principles of planning and budgeting in libraries and other information agencies; the principles of effective personnel practices and human resource development; the assessment and evaluation of library services and their outcomes; and the issues relating to, and methods for, principled, transformational leadership.

MLIS Program Objectives (PO)

Graduates of the VSU MLIS Program will:

PO 1. Perform administrative, service, and technical functions of professional practice in libraries and information centers by demonstrating skills in information resources, reference and user services, administration and management, and organization of recorded knowledge and information. [ALC COMPETENCES 1,2,3,5,8]

PO 2. Use existing and emerging technologies to meet needs in libraries and information centers. [ALC COMPETENCE 4]

PO 3. Integrate relevant research to enhance work in libraries and information centers. [ALC COMPETENCE 6]

PO 4. Demonstrate professionalism in their work in libraries and information centers. [ALC COMPETENCE 7]

INSTRUCTOR

Name: Anita Ondrusek, Professor Emerita
Telephone Number: 229-630-5645
Email Address: alondrus@valdosta.edu
Office Hours: Wednesday, 2-5 pm by phone, or any day by appointment

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Prerequisite: MLIS 7000. An introduction to the various approaches to social science research and research methods. Students will perform small scale research projects and develop skills in the research uses of libraries and the needs of library patrons.
REQUIRED TEXTBOOKS / RESOURCE MATERIALS

Nahl, D. (2000). Strategic Research Approaches for Reference Librarians. Dubuque, IA: Kendall-Hunt. This is a workbook – currently out-of-print. We have permission from the author to copy the content, so chapters are available in PDF format on the BlazeVIEW site for this course.

Note: Please familiarize yourself with the MLIS policy that prohibits the use of VSU’s Interlibrary Loan service for obtaining textbooks at http://www.valdosta.edu/colleges/education/master-of-library-and-information-science/documents/MLISPolicyonILLRequestsforTextbooks.pdf.

COURSE OBJECTIVES (with alignment to MLIS Program Objectives)

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to meet these Student Learning Outcomes (SLOs):

- SLO 1. Recognize the inter-relationships of theory, research, and scientific inquiry (PO3).
- SLO 2. Discuss basic ethical issues associated with conducting research (PO3, PO4).
- SLO 3. Distinguish between qualitative and quantitative research methods (PO3).
- SLO 4. Identify the basic elements in the design of social research studies (PO3).
- SLO 5. Relate terminology, concepts, and processes of social research to studies conducted in the library and information science (LIS) field (PO3).

COURSE ACTIVITIES/ASSIGNMENTS/REQUIREMENTS

MLIS 7700 includes an assignment called Writing a Research Project Proposal that fulfills the Program Objective 3. You will find it marked as “necessary to fulfill requirements for this course” on page 5 of this syllabus. You will need a subscription to LiveText and must submit the final copy of the Research Proposal to your LiveText account.

There are a number of assessments developed to meet ALA accreditation requirements on student learning outcomes. These assessments are part of all the MLIS core courses plus certain electives. LiveText is the software that the MLIS Program selected for keeping track of these assessments, and all MLIS students are REQUIRED to purchase access to the LiveText system. The LiveText subscription is not tied to when you entered the program or to when you plan to graduate. Once you purchase your subscription to LiveText, it is good for up to five years. You will also have personal access to other LiveText features you may find useful once you have your subscription. Please consider the purchase of your LiveText subscription as you would the purchase of any other textbook or piece of software required for a course.
Assignments in Brief

The following list is a brief overview of the activities included in this course in order of their assignment. Look for complete instructions and grading criteria for each assignment on the BlazeVIEW course site.

Discussion Board 1: Theory 5 pts.
Start thinking about the theoretical underpinnings of social research. Post your reaction [SLO 1].

Discussion Board 2: Data Required, earn a bonus pt.
Familiarize yourself with publishing outlets for data on LIS topics. Post your reaction [SLO 5].

Discussion Board 3: Ethics 5 pts.
Post your responses to questions related to ethical principles and rights of research participants [SLO 2].

Discussion Board 4: Measurements 5 pts.
Post your preliminary plan for measurement of data for your proposal [SLO 4].

Discussion Board 5: Abstract Draft Required, earn 2 bonus pts.
Post a draft of your abstract that summarizes the major research design methods of your proposal.

CITI Compliance Training 10 pts.
Complete the online tutorials dealing with human subjects and institutional review board procedures. Submit your certificate to the CITI Certificate Assignment tool [SLO 2].

Individual Exercise A: Qualitative Observations Analysis 10 pts.
Analyze an example of a study from the library and information science literature that employed qualitative observations and other basic components of qualitative design [SLOs 3, 4, 5].

Individual Exercise B: Methods for Collecting Data 15 pts.
Evaluate data collection strategies used in surveys, interviews, and case research for effective and flawed techniques [SLOs 3, 4, 5].

Individual Exercise C: Identifying Elements of Research Design 15 pts.
Identify the basic components of quantitative research design using research examples from the library and information science literature [SLOs 3, 4, 5].

Pre-requisite Drafts on Research Proposal Topic
Select a research problem related to the field of library and information science and use it as the basis for drafting the parts of your final research proposal. Four documents showing your progress on developing your proposal must be submitted. These include: worksheets for stating your research idea in terms of its purpose, objective(s), and research question(s); worksheets for classifying and explaining your proposed research methods; a draft of your literature review; and an abstract submitted to Discussion Board 5 for instructor and peer review. Submission of these drafts is mandatory. You will receive feedback from the professor on each draft. Your final proposal is worth 35 points. Not submitting drafts will result in a 5 point deduction for each missed draft from your final proposal.
Final Project: Writing a Research Project Proposal

Using your preliminary drafts and the feedback on this work, refine and combine your work into a research proposal that articulates how to investigate the research problem you selected. This is a proposal specifying what you would do if you had the opportunity to conduct research on your problem. You do not actually do the research. The final proposal must include: Abstract; Literature review; Problem statement and research question(s); Explanation of the purpose of the research; Objectives or hypothesis; Type of research approach proposed (e.g., qualitative or quantitative design with details); Research design particulars (e.g., procedures on selecting materials or participants, names of variables, and data collection and analysis methods); and Potential application(s) or implication(s) of the proposed research. Details on formatting the report and grading criteria will be on the BlazeVIEW course site. Successful completion of this project is necessary to fulfill requirements for this course [SLOs 1, 2, 3, 4, 5].

COURSE GRADES

Students can earn a maximum of 100 points in this course. Course grades will be awarded as follows:

- 100–90 points = A
- 89–80 points = B
- 79–70 points = C
- 69–60 points = D
- Below 60 points = F

To be eligible to receive an A in the course a student must complete every assignment.

Standards for MLIS core courses: Must earn a grade of B or higher in this course or repeat it.

Standards for all graduate-level courses: Students earning grades below B accrue demerits:

Grade of C = 1 demerit per C; Grades of D or F = 2 demerits per D/F. Three demerits result in dismissal.

NO grade below a C will be credited toward a VSU graduate degree.

An overall grade of zero can be assigned to an entire paper or project if the instructor determines that its contents, or parts of its contents, were completed by a second party or copied into a paper or project from a source without proper citing. Noncompliance with rules on appropriate use of resources will result in zero credit for those parts of the assignment affected.

COURSE EVALUATION

As a student in this class, you are expected to: (1) read or view all assigned background materials; (2) participate fully in discussion board activities; (3) submit all projects on time and according to the format designated by the instructor; and (4) conduct your research and composition according to the rules of academic integrity. See the COEHS Policy on Plagiarism on page 7 and the MLIS Guide to Ethical Conduct located at http://www.valdosta.edu/colleges/education/master-of-library-and-information-science/documents/GuidetoEthicalConductWebversion.pdf

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Course content is delivered asynchronously according to the course calendar. It is the student’s responsibility to follow the course calendar and participate via the class website as indicated at the appropriate times. It is in the student’s best interest to log into the D2L BlazeVIEW course delivery system daily to check for announcements and e-mail messages related to the course.
COMMUNICATION
Please post course-related questions that may be relevant to the class on the Faculty Office discussion board. You are expected to read the discussion boards regularly. If you have a personal question, please send it to the instructor via BlazeView course e-mail. If you would like to speak with the instructor in person or by telephone, please make contact during office hours.

SUBMITTING WRITTEN ASSIGNMENTS
All written work must be submitted as instructed on the BlazeView course website using Word formats (.doc or .docx suffixes only) or other formats designated by the instructor. VSU’s Information Technology (IT) department provides step-by-step guides on how to use VSU’s e-mail system and other resources. The VSU Service Desk is located in Odum Library and is staffed during library hours. For one-on-one help, call 229-245-4357 or use the LANDesk logon located here: https://servicedesk.valdosta.edu/ServiceDesk.WebAccess/wd/Logon/Logon.rails. BlazeVIEW uses the Desire2Learn (D2L) courseware, and D2L provides 24/7 support 365 days a year. To contact D2L, go to https://D2LHelp.view.usg.edu or call the hotline at 855-772-0423.

LATE POLICY
Graded assignments are due Tuesday by 11:30 pm with a 24-hour grace period. Assignments received after the grace period may lose points. Completely skipping an assignment is not acceptable in graduate school. To be eligible to receive an A in this course requires completing every assignment and submitting within the specified deadlines.

REQUESTS FOR INCOMPLETES AND WITHDRAWALS
Requests for withdrawing from a VSU course without academic penalty must be submitted to the office of the VSU Registrar on or before October 17th. If you have not submitted assignments leading up to the withdrawal deadline, you are not eligible for an Incomplete at the end of the semester. A grade of Incomplete is only an option when a non-academic situation interferes with completion of assignments due after the option to withdraw without academic penalty has passed. It must be approved by the instructor before the last day of class (October 17th). Requests for late withdrawal (hardship situations that interfere with meeting assignment requirements after midterm) must be directed to the Dean of Students, Mr. Daryl Lowe (dalowe@valdosta.edu) at (229-333-5941).

PROFESSIONALISM
The Department of Library and Information Studies expects that MLIS students will pursue their academic endeavors and conduct themselves in a professional and ethical manner. All work that a student presents to satisfy course requirements should represent his or her own efforts, including appropriate use and acknowledgement of external sources. The student will be timely and complete with assignments and other engagements. The student will communicate in a professional manner in both speech and writing. The student will maintain a professional attitude, being respectful to others and their viewpoints, and seek to maintain objectivity. The student will exercise an awareness of the pervasiveness of the online environment and strive to maintain a professional online presence.
TITLE IX STATEMENT

Valdosta State University (VSU) is committed to creating a diverse and inclusive work and learning environment free from discrimination and harassment. VSU is dedicated to creating an environment where all campus community members feel valued, respected, and included. Valdosta State University prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color, ethnicity, national origin, sex (including pregnancy status, sexual harassment and sexual violence), sexual orientation, gender identity, religion, age, national origin, disability, genetic information, or veteran status, in the University's programs and activities as required by applicable laws and regulations such as Title IX.

The individual designated with responsibility for coordination of compliance efforts and receipt of inquiries concerning nondiscrimination policies is the University's Title IX Coordinator: Maggie Viverette, Director of the Office of Social Equity, titleix@valosta.edu, 1208 N. Patterson St., Valdosta State University, Valdosta, Georgia 31608, 229-333-5463.

ACCESSIBILITY STATEMENT

Valdosta State University is an equal opportunity educational institution. It is not the intent of the institution to discriminate against any applicant for admission or any student or employee of the institution based on the age, sex, race, religion, color, national origin, disability, or sexual orientation of the individual. It is the intent of the institution to comply with the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and subsequent Executive Orders as well as Title IX, Equal Pay Act of 1963, Vietnam Era Veterans Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974, Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, and the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. Students with disabilities who are experiencing barriers in this course may contact the Access Office for assistance in determining and implementing reasonable accommodations. The Access Office is located in Farber Hall. The phone numbers are 229-245-2498 (V), 229-375-5871 (VP) and 229-219-1348 (TTY). For more information, please visit http://www.valdosta.edu/access or email: access@valdosta.edu.

STUDENT OPINION OF INSTRUCTION

At the end of the term, all students will be expected to complete an online Student Opinion of Instruction survey (SOI) that will be available on SmartEvals. Students will receive an email notification through their VSU email address when the SOI is available (generally at least one week before the end of the term). SOI responses are anonymous, and instructors will be able to access results only after they submitted final grades. Before final grade submission, instructors will not be able to see any responses, but they can see the percentage of students who have or have not completed their SOIs. While instructors will not be able to see student names, an automated system will send a reminder email to those who have yet to complete their SOIs. Students who withdraw or drop a course will also be sent invitations to complete the Dropped Course Survey. Complete information about the SOIs are here: https://www.valdosta.edu/academics/academic-affairs/sois/directions-for-accessing-and-completing-sois.php.
