See the COEHS Policy on Plagiarism on page 6 and the MLIS Guide to Ethical Conduct at http://www.valdosta.edu/colleges/education/master-of-library-and-information-science/documents/GuidetoEthicalConductWebversion.pdf.

Attendance Policy

All course meetings and activities will be conducted through BlazeView, Valdosta State University’s electronic course management system. Course content is delivered asynchronously according to the course calendar. It is the student’s responsibility to follow the course calendar and participate via BlazeVIEW as indicated at the appropriate times. The instructor reserves the right to schedule real-time delivery of instruction using tools available inside BlazeVIEW. It is in the student’s best interest to log into the BlazeVIEW course delivery system daily to check for announcements and e-mail messages related to the course.

Late Policy

All course work is due inside BlazeView on the date and time indicated on the course calendar. No exceptions are possible (other than severe personal illness or injury) due to the short time period for this course. Technological crises are not an acceptable excuse for submitting work late unless BlazeView is down at the time the work is due.

Professionalism

The Department of Library and Information Studies expects that MLIS students will pursue their academic endeavors and conduct themselves in a professional and ethical manner. All work that a student presents to satisfy course requirements should represent his or her own efforts, including appropriate use and acknowledgement of external sources. The student will be timely and complete with assignments and other engagements. The student will communicate in a professional manner in both speech and writing. The student will maintain a professional attitude, being respectful to others and their viewpoints, and seek to maintain objectivity. The student will exercise an awareness of the pervasiveness of the online environment and strive to maintain a professional online presence.

Student Opinion of Instruction
At the end of the term, all students will be expected to complete an online Student Opinion of Instruction survey (SOI) that will be available on BANNER. Students will receive an email notification through their VSU email address when the SOI is available (generally at least one week before the end of the term). SOI responses are anonymous, and instructors will be able to view only a summary of all responses two weeks after they have submitted final grades. Instructors will not be able to view individual responses or to access any of the responses until after final grade submission. Complete information about the SOIs, including how to access the survey and a timetable for this term is available at http://www.valdosta.edu/academics/academic-affairs/vp-office/sois/welcome.php.
