

The Dewar College of Education and Human Services

will be hosting

Professional Development Day

Wednesday, September 11, 2013

9:00-3:00

Magnolia Room

University Center

~ Presenter ~

Chelonnda Seroyer

“Surviving the First Year!”

Mrs. Seroyer has traveled and presented extensively with Rosemary and Harry Wong. She is featured in Dr. Wong’s book entitled The First Days of School and now travels nationally promoting effective classroom management techniques! During this seminar, she will provide an interactive session in which each participant will begin the process of their own management plan. This will be a great day for all!

Professional Dress required~Lunch will be served

