

Valdosta State University

Health & Physical Education Majors' Club

The purpose of the Health and Physical Education Majors' Club is to motivate and assist each major to reach his or her potential, learn new innovative teaching strategies and curriculum content options, and as a professional organization, positively impact the community to incorporate healthy living and physical activity into their daily lives.

For additional information, contact Dr. Eugene Asola at efasola@valdosta.edu