

About the Journal:

Omnino is a peer-reviewed, scholarly research journal for the undergraduate students and academic community of Valdosta State University. Omnino publishes original research from VSU students in all disciplines, bringing student scholarship to a wider academic audience. Undergraduates from every discipline are encouraged to submit their work; papers from upper level courses are suggested.

Submission Guidelines:

In order to submit your work, please email the following items to omnino@valdosta.edu. The email must be sent from your student (@valdosta.edu) email account.

1. An electronic copy of the full paper, in .doc or .rtf format.
2. A 150 – 200 word abstract of the paper.
3. A completed, signed, and scanned “Faculty Checklist” (available online). Alternatively, the checklist may be delivered in print to the Omnino mailbox in West Hall 2109.

In order to submit, you must be an undergraduate student with original research which contributes knowledge and critical argument to your given field. Undergraduates who recently graduated from VSU have up to 1 year from graduation to submit their work. There are no disciplinary restrictions.

Deadline:

All materials must be submitted by January 16th, 2023 for consideration in volume 13. (Submissions received after this date will be considered for the next year’s volume.)
