HANDS ON A HARDBODY

by Amanda Green, Doug Wright, Trey Anastasio

For 10 hard-luck Texans, a new lease on life is so close they can touch it. Under a scorching sun for days on end, armed with nothing but hope, humor and ambition, they'll fight to keep at least one hand on a brand-new truck in order to win it. In the hilarious, hard-fought contest that is Hands on a Hardbody only one winner can drive away with the American Dream inspired by the true events of the acclaimed documentary of the same name by S.R. Bindler produced by Kevin Morris and Bindler.

Everyone's favorite superhero family is back in "Incredibles 2" - but this time Helen is in the spotlight, leaving Bob at home with Violet and Dash to navigate the day-to-day heroics of "normal" life. It's a tough transition for everyone, made tougher by the fact the family is still unaware of baby Jack-Jack's emerging superpowers.

It explores the wonder and discovery made by astronomers throughout the last four centuries. Each show is limited to 47 persons and is 25 minutes in length. The Dedo Maranville Fine Arts Gallery will feature large scale pastel drawings by Texas artist Ghislaine Fremaux. Entitled This Acceptable Body, the exhibition examines the practice of social nudism among senior citizens. The aging body is largely invisible in American culture. The drawings, which are as large as nine feet tall, portray nudists over the age of sixty, who reside in an intentional community in Texas.
